- (a) means all the rights, duties, powers, responsibilities and authority which by law a parent of a child has in relation to the child and his property; and
- (b) includes the rights, powers and duties which a guardian of the child's estate appointed to act generally would have had in relation to the child and his property, including in particular the right to receive or recover in his own name as trustee, for the benefit of the child, property of whatever description and wherever situated which the child is entitled to receive or recover.

(2) The fact that a person has, or does not have, parental responsibility for a child shall not affect—

- (a) any obligation which he may have in relation to the child (such as a statutory duty to maintain the child); or
- (b) any rights which, in the event of the child's death, he (or any other person) may have in relation to the child's property.

(3) The fact that a person has parental responsibility for a child does not entitle him to act in any way that would be incompatible with an order made with respect to the child under this Ordinance or any other enactment.

Parental responsibility: general provisions

10. (1) More than one person may have parental responsibility for a child at the same time.

(2) A person who has parental responsibility for a child at any time does not cease to have that responsibility solely because some other person subsequently acquires parental responsibility for the child.

(3) Where more than one person has parental responsibility for a child, each of them may act alone and without the other (or others) in meeting that responsibility; but nothing in this Part shall be taken as affecting the operation of any enactment requiring the consent of more than one person in a matter affecting the child.

(4) A person who has parental responsibility for a child shall not surrender or transfer any part of that responsibility to another, but may arrange for some or all of it to be met by one or more persons acting on his behalf (who may be a person who already has parental responsibility for the child).

(5) The making of any such arrangement does not affect any liability of the person making it that may arise from any failure to meet any part of his parental responsibility for the child.

(6) Where the parents of a child are deceased, parental responsibility may, on application to the court, and on the recommendation of a social services officer, be passed on to relatives of either parent or to any person designated by the Court.

(7) If a person has care of a child but does not have parental responsibility for him, he may (subject to the provisions of this Ordinance) do what is reasonable in all the circumstances of the case for the purpose of safeguarding or promoting the child's welfare.

Parental responsibility of biological parents

11. (1) Where a child's biological parents were married to each other at the time of his birth, they shall each have parental responsibility for the child.

(2) Where a child's biological parents were not married to each other at the time of his birth—

- (a) the biological mother shall have parental responsibility for the child;
- (b) the biological father shall not have parental responsibility for the child, unless he acquires it in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance.

Acquisition of parental responsibility by biological father

12. (1) Where a child's biological parents were not married to each other at the time of his birth—

- (a) the biological father acquires parental responsibility for the child upon marrying the biological mother of the child at any time after his birth;
- (b) the court may, on the application of the biological father, order that he shall have parental responsibility for the child; or
- (c) the biological parents may by agreement ("a parental responsibility agreement") provide for the biological father to have parental responsibility for the child.

(2) No parental responsibility agreement shall have effect for the purposes of this Ordinance unless—

- (a) it is made in the form prescribed by rules of court; and
- (b) where rules of court are made prescribing the manner in which such agreements shall be recorded, it is recorded in the prescribed manner.

(3) Subject to section 23(1), an order under subsection (1) may only be revoked, and a parental responsibility agreement may only be terminated, by an order of the court made on the application—

- (a) of any person who has parental responsibility for the child, or
- (b) with the leave of the court, of the child himself.

(4) The court shall not grant leave under subsection (3)(b) unless it is satisfied that the child has sufficient understanding to make the proposed application.

(5) A parental responsibility agreement continues in force until the child reaches the age of 18, unless it is terminated earlier.

(2) The power conferred by subsection (1) may also be exercised in any family proceedings in the Supreme Court if the Court considers that the order should be made although no application has been made for it.

(2) An appointment under section 14 revokes an earlier such appointment (including one made in an unrevoked will or codicil) made by the same person in respect of the same child, unless it is clear (whether by express provision in the later appointment or by any necessary implication) that the purpose of the later appointment is to appoint an additional guardian.

(3) An appointment under section 14 (including one made in an unrevoked will or codicil) is revoked if the person who made the appointment revokes it in writing, dated and signed either—

- (a) by him; or

(4) An appointment under section 14 (including one made in an unrevoked will or codicil) is revoked if the person appointed is the spouse of the person who made the appointment and either—unless a contrary intention appears by the appointment.

- (8) On receipt of such a notice, the Social Work Manager must investigate the matter and prepare a report for the court dealing with the suitability of the applicant to be a special guardian and any other matter which the Social Work Manager considers to be relevant.

Leave to apply for section 18 order

20. (1) Where the person applying for leave to make an application for an order under section 18 is not the child concerned, the court shall, in deciding whether or not to grant such leave, have particular regard to—

(2) Where the person applying for leave to make an application for an order under section 18 is the child concerned, the court shall not grant such leave unless it is satisfied that he has sufficient understanding to make the proposed application.

 - (b) make any order under section 18 which is to have effect for a period which will end after the child has reached the age of 16, unless it is satisfied that the circumstances of the case are exceptional.

Duration of orders

22. (1) No order under this Part with respect to a child continues in force after the child has reached the age of 18.

(2) Any order under section 18 with respect to a child ceases to have effect on the making of a care order with respect to him.

(3) Any order under section 18 with respect to a child remains in force until he reaches the age of 16, unless—

(4) Where—

- (a) a residence order has been made with respect to a child; and the residence order shall cease to have effect if the parents live together for a continuous period of more than six months.

(5) A contact order which requires the parent with whom a child lives to allow the child to visit, or otherwise have contact with, his other parent shall cease to have effect if the parents live together for a continuous period of more than six months.

Effect of residence order

23. (1) Where a court makes a residence order in favour of the father of a child it shall, if he would not otherwise have parental responsibility for the child, also make an order under section 12 giving him that responsibility; and the order shall not be revoked while the residence order remains in force.

- (a) cause the child to be known by a new surname; or

(5) When making a residence order with respect to a child, the court may grant the leave required by subsection (4)(b), either generally or for specified purposes.

Enforcement of residence orders

- (b) any other person is in breach of the arrangements settled by the order; and
- (c) a copy of the order has been served on that other person, the order may, without prejudice to any other remedy which may be available, be enforced as if it were an order of the Magistrates' Court requiring that other person to give up the child to the person in favour of whom the residence order is made.

Financial provision orders

25. Schedule 1 shall have effect for the purpose of enabling the court to make financial provision for children in certain family proceedings.

Jurisdiction

26. (1) Any powers of the Magistrates' Court under this Ordinance are exercisable even though any party to the proceedings is residing outside St. Helena, except that it shall not entertain an application under paragraph 9 of Schedule 1 unless both the parties to the agreement in question are resident in St. Helena.

(2) The Magistrates' Court shall not entertain any application involving the administration or application of any property belonging to or held in trust for a child or the income thereof.

(3) The Magistrates' Court shall not make any order under paragraph 1 of Schedule 1 other than—

- (a) an order under paragraph 1(1)(a) or (c); or
- (b) an order varying, revoking or reviving an order under paragraph 1(1)(a).

(4) The amount of any lump sum to be paid by a lump sum order made by the Magistrates' Court shall not exceed £2,500; but the Magistrates' Court may make a lump sum order not exceeding that amount even though the parent was required to pay a lump sum by a previous order under this Part.

(6) The Magistrates' Court shall not make any order under paragraph 9 of Schedule 1 except—

- (a) in a case where the agreement contains no provision for periodical payments by either of the parties, an order inserting provision for the making by one of the parties of periodical payments for the maintenance of the child;
- (b) in a case where the agreement includes provision for the making by one of the parties of periodical payments, an order increasing or reducing the rate of, or terminating, any of those payments, and shall not in any case make an order on an application under paragraph 10 of that Schedule.

(7) Where an application is made to the Magistrates' Court for an order under this Ordinance, and the court considers that the matter is one which would be more conveniently dealt with by the Supreme Court, the court shall refuse to make the order, and no appeal shall lie from that refusal; but the court may exercise its powers under paragraph 8 of Schedule 1 to make interim orders.

(8) In any proceedings in the Supreme Court relating to or comprising the same subject matter as an application that is refused under subsection (7), the application shall, if the Supreme Court so orders, be reheard and determined by the Magistrates' Court.

Wardship

27. (1) Subject to subsection (2), no child shall be made a ward of court except by an order made by the Supreme Court.

(2) Where application is made for an order under subsection (1) in respect of a child, the child shall become a ward of court on the making of the application, but shall cease to be a ward of court at the expiration of such period as may be prescribed by rules of court, unless within that period an order has been made in accordance with that application.

(3) The Supreme Court may, on an application in that behalf or of its own motion, order that a child who is a ward of court shall cease to be a ward of court.

(4) No application may be made by the Department under subsection (1) unless the Department has obtained the leave of the Supreme Court, which shall not be granted unless the Court is satisfied that—

- (a)* the result which the Department wishes to achieve could not be achieved through the making of any other order for which the Department is entitled to apply (assuming that any requisite leave were granted); and
- (b)* there is reasonable cause to believe that, if a wardship order is not granted with respect to the child, he will suffer, or be likely to suffer, significant harm.

(5) The making of a care order with respect to a child who is a ward of court brings the wardship to an end.

Restriction on further applications

28. On disposing of any application for an order under this Part, a court may (whether or not it makes any other order in the proceedings) order that no application for an order under this Ordinance of any specified kind may be made with respect to the child concerned by any person named in the order without the leave of the court (that is, the leave of any court having jurisdiction to hear the application in question).

- (a) in whose favour a residence order is in force with respect to the child; or
- (b) who has care of the child by virtue of an order made in the exercise of the Supreme Court's inherent jurisdiction with respect to children, agrees to the child being looked after in accommodation provided by or on behalf of the Department; and where there is more than one such person, all of them shall agree.

(6) Subsections (3) and (4) do not apply where a child who has reached the age of 16 agrees to being provided with accommodation under this section.

(7) The powers of the Department to provide accommodation under this Ordinance are without prejudice to any functions of the Department under any other enactment.

Manner in which accommodation may be provided

33. (1) The Department may provide accommodation for a child by—

- (a) placing him, on such terms as to payment by the Department and otherwise as the Department may determine, with—
 - (i) a family;
 - (ii) a relative of his; or
 - (iii) any other suitable person,
- (b) maintaining him in a home provided and managed by the Department;
- (c) maintaining him in a registered children's home; or
- (d) making such other arrangements as seem appropriate to the Department.

(2) Any person with whom a child has been placed under subsection (1)(a) is referred to in this Ordinance as “an official foster parent” unless he is—

- (a) a parent of the child;
- (b) a person who is not a parent of the child but has parental responsibility for him; or
- (c) where the child is in care and there was a residence order in force with respect to him immediately before the care order was made, a person in whose favour the residence order was made.

¹² Section 32(1)(c)(i) amended by Gazette Notice No. 44 dated 18 May 2010

(3) Unless it would not be reasonably practicable or consistent with his welfare, the Department shall make arrangements so that any child whom it is looking after can live with—

- (a) a parent of his; or
- (b) another individual who has parental responsibility for him, or
- (c) where he is in the care of the Department and a residence order was in force with respect to him immediately before the care order was made, a person with whom he was to live under the residence order, or
- (d) a relative, friend or other person connected with him.

(4) Unless it would not be reasonably practicable or consistent with his welfare, the Department shall secure that—

- (a) any accommodation provided by it for a child is near his home;
- (b) where the Department are also providing accommodation for a brother or sister of his, they are accommodated together;
- (c) where the child is disabled, the accommodation is not unsuitable for his needs.

Secure accommodation

34. (1) Subject to the provisions of this section and section 89(4), a child who is being looked after by the Department shall not be placed, and, if placed, shall not be kept, in accommodation provided for the purpose of restricting liberty (“secure accommodation”) unless it appears—

- (a) that—
 - (i) he has a history of absconding and is likely to abscond from any other description of accommodation; and
 - (ii) if he absconds, he will suffer, or be likely to suffer, significant harm; or
- (b) that if he is kept in any other kind of accommodation he is likely to injure himself or other persons.

(2) A child shall not be kept in secure accommodation after the end of such period as may be prescribed, unless a juvenile court has by an order made on the application of the Department authorised him to be kept there.

(3) Subject to subsection (5), on an application under subsection (2) the court—

- (a) shall make the order applied for if (and only if) it is satisfied that—
 - (i) the condition specified in subsection (1)(a) or (b); and
 - (ii) such further conditions as may be prescribed, are fulfilled; and
- (b) shall in the order specify the maximum period (which shall not exceed such period as may be prescribed) for which he may be kept in secure accommodation without a further order under subsection (2).

(4) If the court adjourns the hearing of an application under subsection (2), it may make an interim order permitting the child to be kept during the period of the adjournment in secure accommodation.

(5) The court shall not make an order under subsection (2) unless—

- (a) it is satisfied that the Department has taken all such steps as are reasonable and practicable to notify any person who has parental responsibility for the child of the Department's intention to make the application; and
- (b) where the child is not legally represented in that court, he has been informed of his right to apply for legal aid and given an opportunity to do so, and has refused or failed to apply.

- (6) This section—
- (a) does not apply to a child remanded under section 89 to accommodation provided by the Department;
 - (b) does not apply to any prescribed description of children; and
 - (c) has effect in relation to children of a prescribed description subject to such modifications as may be prescribed.
- (7) The making of an order under this section does not prejudice any power of any court to make any other order or to give directions relating to the child to whom the order relates.

(2) Where the court gives a direction under this section the Department shall, when undertaking the investigation, consider whether it should—

- (a) apply for a care order or a supervision order with respect to the child; or

(3) Where the Department undertakes an investigation under this section and decides not to apply for a care order or a supervision order with respect to the child concerned, it shall inform the court of—

- and shall so inform the court before the end of the period of 8 weeks beginning with the date of the direction, or such shorter period as the court may direct.

Reports

37. (1) When considering any question with respect to a child under this Ordinance the court may ask the Department to arrange for an officer of the Department, or ask a probation officer, to make to the court a report, orally or in writing, with respect to any specified matter appearing to the court to be relevant to the application, and the Department or the probation officer, as the case may be, shall comply with the request.

(2) A report made in pursuance of subsection (1) shall be made to the court at a hearing of the application unless it is in writing, in which case—

(4) The court may take account of—

- (a) any statement contained in a report made at a hearing of an application or of which copies have been given to the parties or their advocates in accordance with subsection (2)(a); and
- (b) any evidence given by the officer under subsection (3), in so far as the statement or evidence is, in the opinion of the court, relevant to the application, notwithstanding any enactment or rule of law to the contrary.

(3) The Governor in Council may by regulations make provision as to the procedures to be followed by the SCB.

Funding of SCB

40. (1) The SCB shall be wholly funded by the Government.

(2) The Government shall be responsible for providing staff, goods, services, accommodation and other resources for the proper functioning of the SCB.

(2) A Government Department or public officer shall, in exercising its or his functions relating to the SCB, have regard to any guidance given to them for the purpose by the Governor in Council.

PART VII CARE AND SUPERVISION

Care and supervision orders

42. (1) On the application of the Department or authorised person, a court may make an order—

- (a) placing the child in the care of the Department (a “care order”); or
- (b) putting him under the supervision of the Department or, with the consent of the Department, of a probation officer (a “supervision order”).

(2) A court shall not make a care order or a supervision order unless it is satisfied—

- (a) that the child is suffering, or likely to suffer, significant harm; and
- (b) that the harm, or likelihood of harm, is attributable to—
 - (i) the care given to the child, or likely to be given to him if the order were not made, not being what it would be reasonable to expect a parent to give to him; or
 - (ii) the child being beyond parental control.

(3) No care order or supervision order shall be made with respect to a child who has reached the age of 17 (or 16, in the case of a child who is married).

(4) An application under this section may be made on its own or in any family proceedings.

(5) The court may—

- (a) on an application for a care order, make a supervision order; or
- (b) on an application for a supervision order, make a care order.

- (a) if it is reasonably practicable to do so; and
- (b) before making the application, consult the Department.

(7) An application made by an authorised person shall not be entertained by the court if, at the time when it is made, the child concerned is—

- (a) the subject of an earlier application for a care order, or supervision order, which has not been disposed of; or
- (b) subject to a care order or supervision order.

(8) Where the question of whether harm suffered by a child is significant turns on the child’s health or development, his health or development shall be compared with that which could reasonably be expected of a similar child.

(9) In this section—

“authorised person” means any person authorised by order of the Governor in Council to bring proceedings under this section and any officer of a body which is so authorised.

Simultaneous applications

42A.¹³ (1) For the avoidance of doubt, when an application for a care order is pending before the court, an application under section 98 or section 103 may be made to the same court and proceeded with concurrently with the application for the care order.

(2) Where an application of either or both of the kinds referred to in subsection (1) is made, and the result of the original proceedings is the making of a care order, the court shall proceed forthwith to determine the application under section 98 or 103, as the case may be, unless the court determines that to do so would be incompatible with the principles set out in section 3.

Effect of care order

43.¹⁴ (1) Where a care order is made with respect to a child, it is the duty of the Department to receive the child into its care and to keep him in its care while the order remains in force.

(2) While a care order is in force with respect to a child, the Department shall—

- (a) have parental responsibility for him; and
- (b) have the power to determine the extent to which a parent or guardian of the child may meet his parental responsibility for him, subject to—
 - (i) the following provisions of this section; and
 - (ii) any right, duty, power, responsibility or authority which a parent or guardian has in relation to him and his property by virtue of an enactment other than this section.

(3) The Department shall not exercise its power under subsection (2)(b) unless it is satisfied that it is necessary to do so in order to safeguard or promote the welfare of the child.

(4) Nothing in subsection (2)(b) prevents a parent or guardian of the child who has care of him from doing what is reasonable in all the circumstances of the case for the purpose of safeguarding or promoting his welfare.

(5) While a care order is in force with respect to a child, the Department shall not, except with the leave of the court—

- (a) cause him to be brought up in any religious persuasion other than that in which he would have been brought up if the order had not been made; or
- (b) have the right—
 - (i) to agree or refuse to agree to the making of an adoption order with respect to him; or
 - (ii) to appoint a guardian for him.

(6) Except with the leave of the court, no person may, while a care order is in force with respect to a child—

- (a) cause him to be known by a new surname; or
- (b) remove him from St. Helena, without the written consent of every person who has parental responsibility for him.

(7) Subsection (6)(b) does not—

- (a) prevent the removal of such a child by the Department for a period of less than three months; or
- (b) apply to arrangements for such a child to live outside the Island (which are governed by paragraph 6 of Schedule 2).

¹³ Section 42A inserted by Ord. 11 of 2013

¹⁴ Section 43 amended by Ord. 11 of 2013

Parental contact, etc. with children in care

44. (1) Where a child is in the care of the Department, the Department shall, subject to the provisions of this section, allow the child reasonable contact with—

- (a) his parents;
- (b) any guardian of his;
- (c) where there was a residence order in force with respect to him immediately before the care order came into force, the person in favour of whom the order was made; and
- (d) where, immediately before the care order was made, an individual had care of the child by virtue of an order made in the exercise of the Supreme Court's inherent jurisdiction with respect to children, that individual.

(2) On an application made by the Department or the child, the court may make such order as it considers appropriate with respect to the contact that is to be allowed between the child and any named person.

(3) On an application made by—

- (a) any person mentioned in subsection (1)(a) to (d); or
- (b) any person who has obtained the leave of the court to make the application, the court may make such order as it considers appropriate with respect to the contact which is to be allowed between the child and that person.

(4) On an application made by the Department or the child, the court may make an order authorising the Department to refuse to allow contact between the child and any person mentioned in subsection (1)(a) to (d) and named in the order.

(5) When making a care order with respect to a child, or in any family proceedings in connection with a child who is in the care of the Department, the court may make an order under this section, even though no application for such an order has been made with respect to him, if it considers that the order should be made.

(6) The Department may refuse to allow the contact that would otherwise be required by virtue of subsection (1) or an order under this section if—

- (a) it is satisfied that it is necessary to do so in order to safeguard or promote the welfare of the child; and
- (b) the refusal—
 - (i) is decided upon as a matter of urgency; and
 - (ii) does not last for more than seven days.

(7) An order under this section may impose such conditions as the court considers appropriate.

(8) The court may vary or revoke any order made under this section on the application of the Department, the child concerned or the person named in the order.

(9) An order under this section may be made either at the same time as the care order itself or later.

(10) Before making a care order with respect to any child the court shall—

- (a) consider the arrangements which the Department has made, or proposes to make, for affording any person contact with him; and
- (b) invite the parties to the proceedings to comment on those arrangements.

Supervision orders

45. (1) While a supervision order is in force it is the duty of the supervisor—

- (a) to advise, assist and befriend the supervised child;
- (b) to take such steps as are reasonably necessary to give effect to the order; and

- (c) where—
 - (i) the order is not wholly complied with; or
 - (ii) the supervisor considers that the order may no longer be necessary, to consider whether or not to apply to the court for its variation or revocation.
- (2) Schedule 4 makes further provision with respect to supervision orders.

Interim orders

46. (1) Where—

- (a) in any proceedings on an application for a care order or supervision order, the proceedings are adjourned; or
- (b) the court gives a direction under section 36(1), the court may make an interim care order or an interim supervision order with respect to the child concerned.

(2) A court shall not make an interim care order or interim supervision order unless it is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the circumstances with respect to the child are as mentioned in section 42(2).

(3) Where, in any proceedings on an application for a care order or a supervision order, a court makes a residence order with respect to the child concerned, it shall also make an interim supervision order with respect to him unless it is satisfied that his welfare will be satisfactorily safeguarded without an interim order being made.

(4) An interim order shall have effect for such period as may be specified in the order, but shall in any event cease to have effect on whichever of the following events first occurs—

- (a) the expiry of eight weeks beginning with the date on which the order is made;
- (b) if the order is the second or subsequent such order made with respect to the same child in the same proceedings, the expiry of the relevant period;
- (c) in a case within subsection (1)(a), the disposal of the application;
- (d) in a case within subsection (1)(b), the disposal of an application for a care order or supervision order made by the Department with respect to the child;
- (e) in a case which falls within subsection (1)(b) and in which—
 - (i) the court has given a direction under section 36(1); but
 - (ii) no application for a care order or supervision order has been made with respect to the child, the expiry of the period fixed by that direction.

(5) In subsection (4)(b) “the relevant period” means—

- (a) the period of 4 weeks beginning with the date on which the order in question is made; or
- (b) the period of eight weeks beginning with the date on which the first order was made if that period ends later than the period mentioned in paragraph (a).

(6) Where a court makes an order under or by virtue of this section it shall, in determining the period for which an interim order is to be in force, the court shall consider whether any party who was, or might have been, opposed to the making of the order was in a position to argue his case against the order in full.

(7) Where the court makes an interim order, it may give such directions (if any) as it considers appropriate with regard to the medical or psychiatric examination or other assessment of the child; but if the child is of sufficient understanding to make an informed decision he may refuse to submit to the examination or other assessment.

(8) A direction under subsection (6) may be to the effect that there is to be no such examination or assessment, or no such examination or assessment unless the court directs otherwise; and such a direction may—

- (a) be given when the interim order is made or at any time while it is in force; and
- (b) be varied at any time on the application of the Department, the child or any person with parental responsibility for him.

Power to include exclusion requirement in interim care order

47. (1) Where the court makes an interim care order with respect to a child and the conditions specified in subsection (2) are satisfied, the court may include an exclusion requirement in the interim care order.

(2) The conditions referred to in subsection (1) are that—

- (a) the court is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the circumstances with respect to the child are as mentioned in section 42(2)(a) and (b)(i);
- (b) there is reasonable cause to believe that, if a person (“the relevant person”) is excluded from a dwelling-house in which the child lives, the child will cease to suffer, or be likely to suffer, significant harm; and
- (c) that another person living in the dwelling-house (whether a parent of the child or some other person)—
 - (i) is able and willing to give to the child the care which it would be reasonable to expect a parent to give him; and
 - (ii) consents to the inclusion of the exclusion requirement.

(3) Schedule 5 has effect with respect to exclusion requirements under this section and undertakings to the like effect.

Revocation and variation, etc. of care orders and supervision orders

48. (1) A care order may be revoked by the court on the application of—

- (a) any person who has parental responsibility for the child;
- (b) the child himself; or
- (c) the Department.

(2) A supervision order may be varied or revoked by the court on the application of—

- (a) any person who has parental responsibility for the child;
- (b) the child himself; or
- (c) the supervisor.

(3) On the application of a person who is not entitled to apply for the order to be revoked, but who is a person with whom the child is living, a supervision order may be varied by the court in so far as it imposes a requirement which affects that person.

(4) Where a care order is in force with respect to a child the court may, on the application of any person entitled to apply for the order to be revoked, substitute a supervision order for the care order.

(5) When a court is considering whether to substitute one order for another under subsection (4) any provisions of this Ordinance which would otherwise require section 42(2) to be satisfied at the time when the proposed order is substituted or made shall be disregarded.

Duration of care orders

49. (1) Unless previously revoked, and subject to subsection (2), a care order (other than an interim order) continues in force until the child concerned reaches the age of 18.

(2) A care order with respect to a child ceases to have effect—

- (a) if he is adopted;

- (b) on the making of any of the following orders with respect to him—
 - (i) a residence order;
 - (ii) an order under section 13.

Orders, etc. pending appeal

50. (1) Where—

- (a) a court dismisses an application for a care order or a supervision order; and
- (b) at the time when the court dismisses the application, an interim care order is in force with respect to the child, the court may make an order pending appeal, that is, a supervision order or (if the application was for a care order) a care order with respect to the child to have effect for such period, not exceeding the appeal period, as may be specified in the order.

(2) Where a court revokes a care order or a supervision order, it may direct that the order shall continue to have effect for such period, not exceeding the appeal period, as may be specified in the order.

(3) An order or direction under subsection (1) or (2) may be made subject to such directions or further directions (if any) as the court may see fit to include in the order or direction.

(4) On an appeal against any decision of a court on which an order or direction under subsection (1) or (2) is made, or on an application in connection with a proposed appeal against such a decision, the appellate court may extend the period for which the order or direction is to have effect, but not so as to extend it beyond the end of the appeal period.

(5) In this section “the appeal period” means—

- (a) where an appeal is made against the decision in question, the period between the making of the decision and the determination of the appeal;
- (b) otherwise, the period during which an appeal may be made against the decision.

Restrictions on applications

51. (1) Where an application has been made for—

- (a) the revocation of a care order;
- (b) the revocation of a supervision order; or
- (c) the substitution of a supervision order for a care order;

no further application of any of those kinds (except in relation to an interim order) may be made with respect to the child concerned without the leave of the court, unless the period between the disposal of the previous application and the making of the further application exceeds six months.

(2) Where an application for an order under section 42 has been refused, the applicant shall not make a further application for such an order without the leave of the court, unless the period between the disposal of the previous application and the making of the further application exceeds six months.

(3) On disposing of any application for an order under this Part, the court may (whether or not it makes any other order in response to the application) order that no application for an order under this Ordinance of a specified kind may be made with respect to the child concerned by any person named in the order without the leave of the court.

(4) References in this section to the leave of the court are to the leave of any court having jurisdiction to hear the application in question.

PART VIII PROTECTION OF CHILDREN

Child assessment orders

52. (1) On the application of the Department or authorised person for an order to be made under this section with respect to a child, the Magistrates' Court may make the order if (and only if) it is satisfied that—

- (a) the applicant has reasonable cause to suspect that the child is suffering, or likely to suffer, significant harm; and
- (b) an assessment of the state of the child's health or development, or of the way in which he has been treated, is required to enable the applicant to determine whether or not the child is suffering, or likely to suffer, significant harm; and
- (c) it is unlikely that such an assessment will be made, or be satisfactory, in the absence of an assessment order under this subsection.

(2) The court may treat an application under this section as an application for an emergency protection order.

(3) The court shall not make a child assessment order if it is satisfied—

- (a) that there are grounds for making an emergency protection order with respect to the child; and
- (b) that it ought to make such an order rather than a child assessment order.

(4) A child assessment order shall specify the date by which the assessment is to begin, and shall have effect for such period, not exceeding seven days beginning with that date, as may be specified in the order.

(5) Where a child assessment order is in force with respect to a child it shall be the duty of any person who is in a position to produce the child—

- (a) to produce him to such person as may be named in the order; and
- (b) to comply with such directions relating to the assessment of the child as the court thinks fit to specify in the order.

(6) A child assessment order authorises any person carrying out the assessment, or any part of it, to do so in accordance with the terms of the order.

(7) Notwithstanding subsection (6), if the child is of sufficient understanding to make an informed decision, he may refuse to submit to a medical or psychiatric examination or other assessment.

(8) The child may only be kept away from home—

- (a) in accordance with directions specified in the order;
- (b) if it is necessary for the purposes of the assessment; and
- (c) for such period or periods as may be specified in the order.

(9) Where the child is to be kept away from home, the order shall contain such directions as the court thinks fit with regard to the contact that he shall be allowed to have with other persons while away from home.

(10) Any person making an application for a child assessment order shall take such steps as are reasonably practicable to ensure that notice of the application is given to—

- (a) the parents of the child;
- (b) any person who is not a parent of the child but has parental responsibility for him;
- (c) any other person caring for the child;
- (d) any person in whose favour a contact order is in force with respect to the child;
- (e) any person who is allowed to have contact with the child by virtue of an order under section 44;
- (f) the child,

before the hearing of the application.

(11) Rules of court may make provision as to the circumstances in which—

- (a) any of the persons mentioned in subsection (10); or

(b) such other person as may be specified in the rules, may apply to the court for a child assessment order to be varied or revoked.

Emergency protection orders

53. (1) Where any person (“the applicant”) applies to the court for an order to be made under this section with respect to a child, the court may make the order if, but only if, it is satisfied that—

- (a) there is reasonable cause to believe that the child will suffer, or be likely to suffer, significant harm if—
 - (i) he is not removed to accommodation provided by or on behalf of the applicant; or
 - (ii) he does not remain in the place in which he is then being accommodated; or
- (b) in the case of an application made by the Department—
 - (i) enquiries are being made with respect to the child under section 36; and
 - (ii) such enquiries are being frustrated by access to the child being unreasonably refused to a person authorised by the Department to seek access in connection with the enquiries; and
 - (iii) the Department has reasonable cause to believe that such access is required as a matter of urgency.

(2) Where an emergency protection order is in force with respect to a child, any person who is in a position to produce the child shall comply with any request to produce him to the Department.

(3) An emergency protection order authorizes—

- (a) the removal of the child at any time to accommodation provided by or on behalf of the Department and his detention there; and
- (b) the prevention of the child's removal from any hospital or other place in which he was being accommodated immediately before the making of the order, but the Department shall only exercise the power given by paragraph (a) or (b) in order to safeguard the welfare of the child.

(4) An emergency protection order gives the Department parental responsibility for the child; and the Department shall take, and shall only take, such action in meeting its parental responsibility for the child as is reasonably required to safeguard or promote his welfare (having regard in particular to the duration of the order).

(5) Where a court makes an emergency protection order, it may give such directions (if any) as may be appropriate with respect to—

- (a) the contact which is, or is not, to be allowed between the child and any named person;
- (b) imposing conditions on such contact.

(6) Where a court makes an emergency protection order, it may give such directions (if any) as may be appropriate with respect to the medical or psychiatric examination or other assessment of the child; and a direction under this subsection may be to the effect that there is to be—

- (a) no such examination or assessment; or
- (b) no such examination or assessment unless the court directs otherwise, but if the child is of sufficient understanding to make an informed decision, he may refuse to submit to any such examination or assessment.

(7) A direction under subsection (5) or (6) may be given when the emergency protection order is made or at any other time, and may be varied at any time on the application of—

- (a) any person having parental responsibility for the child; or
- (b) any other person specified for the purpose in rules of court.

(8) Where—

- (a) an emergency protection order is in force with respect to a child; and
- (b) the Department has exercised the power given by subsection (3)(a) or (b), but
- (c) it appears to the Department that it is safe for the child to be returned, or to be allowed to be removed from the place in question, as the case may be,

it shall return him or allow him to be removed.

(9) Where the Department is required by subsection (8) to return the child it shall—

- (a) return him to the care of the person from whose care he was removed; or
- (b) if that is not reasonably practicable, return him to the care of—
 - (i) a parent of his;
 - (ii) any individual who is not a parent of his but has parental responsibility for him; or
 - (iii) such other person as the Department (with the agreement of the court) considers appropriate.

(10) Where the Department has been required by subsection (8) to return the child or allow him to be removed, it may again exercise its powers with respect to the child (at any time while the emergency protection order remains in force) if it appears to it that a change in the circumstances of the case makes it necessary to do so.

(11) Where an emergency protection order has been made with respect to a child, the Department shall, subject to any directions under subsection (5), allow the child reasonable contact with—

Power to include exclusion requirement in emergency protection order

54. (1) Where the court makes an emergency protection order with respect to a child and the conditions specified in subsection (2) are satisfied, the court may include an exclusion requirement in the emergency protection order.

(2) The conditions referred to in subsection (1) are—

- (a) that there is reasonable cause to believe that, if a person (“the relevant person”) is excluded from a dwelling-house in which the child lives, then—
 - (i) in the case of an order made on the ground mentioned in paragraph (a) of section 53(1), the child will not suffer, or be likely to suffer, significant harm, even though he is not removed or does not remain as mentioned in subparagraph (i) or (ii) of that paragraph; or
 - (ii) in the case of an order made on the ground mentioned in paragraph (b) of section 53(1), the enquiries referred to in that paragraph will cease to be frustrated; and

(b) that another person living in the dwelling-house (whether a parent of the child or some other person)—

(i) is able and willing to give to the child the care which it would be reasonable to expect a parent to give him; and

(ii) consents to the inclusion of the exclusion requirement.

(3) Schedule 5 has effect with respect to exclusion requirements under this section and undertakings to the like effect.

Duration of emergency protection orders, etc.

55. (1) An emergency protection order shall have effect for such period not exceeding eight days as may be specified in the order.

(2) Where—

(a) the court making an emergency protection order would, but for this subsection, specify a period of eight days as the period for which the order is to have effect; but

(b) the last of those eight days is Christmas Day, Good Friday, a public holiday or a Sunday, the court may specify a period which ends at noon on the first later day which is not such a day.

(3) Where an emergency protection order is made on an application under section 56(6), the period of eight days mentioned in subsection (1) shall begin with the first day on which the child was taken into police protection under section 56.

(4) The Department may, while an emergency protection order has effect, apply to the court for the period during which the order is to have effect to be extended; and on such an application the court may extend that period for such period, not exceeding seven days, as it thinks fit, but—

(a) the court may do so only if it has reasonable cause to believe that the child concerned will suffer, or be likely to suffer, significant harm if the order is not extended; and

(b) an emergency protection order shall not be extended more than once.

(5) Regardless of any enactment or rule of law that would otherwise prevent it from doing so, a court hearing an application for or with respect to an emergency protection order may take account of—

(a) any statement contained in any report made to the court in the course of, or in connection with, the hearing; or

(b) any evidence given during the hearing, which is, in the opinion of the court, relevant to the application.

(6) Any of the following may apply to the Magistrates' Court for an emergency protection order to be revoked—

(a) the child concerned;

(b) any parent of his;

(c) any person who is not a parent of his but who has parental responsibility for him; or

(d) any person with whom he was living immediately before the making of the order, but no such application shall be heard by the court before the expiry of the period of 72 hours beginning with the making of the order.

(7) No appeal may be made against the making of, or refusal to make, an emergency protection order or against any direction given by the court in connection with such an order, except—

- (a) where the person who would otherwise be entitled to apply for the order to be revoked was given notice (in accordance with rules of court) of the hearing at which the order was made, and was present at that hearing; or
- (b) in the case of an order the effective period of which has been extended under subsection (4).

(8) A court making an emergency protection order may direct that an officer of the Department, in exercising any powers by virtue of the order, be accompanied by a registered medical practitioner, if he chooses.

Removal by police

56. (1) Where a constable has reasonable cause to believe that a child would otherwise suffer, or be likely to suffer, significant harm, he may—

- (a) remove the child to suitable accommodation and keep him there; or
- (b) take such steps as are reasonable to ensure that the child's removal from any hospital, or other place, in which he is then being accommodated is prevented, and such a child is referred to in this Ordinance as having been taken into police protection.

(2) As soon as is reasonably practicable after taking a child into police protection, the constable concerned shall—

- (a) inform the Department of the steps that have been, and are proposed to be, taken with respect to the child under this section, the reasons for taking them and the place at which he is being accommodated;
- (b) inform the child (if he appears capable of understanding) of the steps that have been taken with respect to him under this section and the reasons for taking them, and of the further steps that may be taken with respect to him under this section;
- (c) take such steps as are reasonably practicable to discover the wishes and feelings of the child;
- (d) secure that the case is inquired into by an officer designated for the purposes of this section by the Chief of Police¹⁵ (a “designated officer”); and
- (e) where the child was taken into police protection by being removed to accommodation which is not provided by or on behalf of the Department, secure that he is moved to accommodation which is so provided.

(3) As soon as is reasonably practicable after taking a child into police protection, the constable concerned shall take such steps as are reasonably practicable to inform—

- (a) the parents of the child;
- (b) every individual who is not a parent of his but who has parental responsibility for him; and
- (c) any other person with whom he was living immediately before he was taken into police protection, of the steps that have been taken with respect to the child under this section and the reasons for taking them, and of the further steps that may be taken with respect to him under this section.

(4) On completing any inquiry under subsection (2)(d), the designated officer shall release the child from police protection unless he considers that there is still reasonable cause for believing that the child would suffer, or be likely to suffer, significant harm if released.

(5) No child may be kept in police protection for more than 72 hours.

(6) While a child is being kept in police protection, the designated officer may, after consultation with the Department, apply on behalf of the Department for an emergency protection order to be made under section 53 with respect to the child.

¹⁵ Gazette Notice No. 63 of 1 July 2011: Title changed to Director of Police

(7) While a child is being kept in police protection—

- (a) neither the constable concerned nor the designated officer shall have parental responsibility for him; but
- (b) the designated officer shall do what is reasonable in all the circumstances of the case for the purpose of safeguarding or promoting the welfare of the child (having regard in particular to the length of the period during which the child will be so protected).

(8) Where a child has been taken into police protection, the designated officer or, where the child is in accommodation provided by or on behalf of the Department, the Department shall allow—

- (a) the parents of the child;
- (b) any individual who is not a parent of his but who has parental responsibility for him; or
- (c) any person with whom he was living immediately before he was taken into police protection;
- (d) any person in whose favour a contact order is in force with respect to him;
- (e) any person who is allowed to have contact with the child by virtue of an order under section 44;
- (f) any person acting on behalf of any of those persons, to have such contact (if any) with the child as, in the opinion of the designated officer or the Department, as the case may be, is both reasonable and in the best interests of the child.

(9) A police station shall not be taken to be suitable accommodation for the purpose of subsection (1)(a).

Department's duty to investigate

57. (1) Where the Department—

- (a) is informed that a child is in police protection; or
- (b) has reasonable cause to believe that a child is suffering, or likely to suffer, significant harm, the Department shall make or cause to be made such enquiries as it considers necessary to enable it to decide whether it should take any action to safeguard or promote the welfare of the child.

(2) Where the Department has obtained an emergency protection order with respect to a child, it shall make or cause to be made such enquiries as it considers necessary to enable it to decide what action it should take to safeguard or promote the welfare of the child.

(3) The enquiries shall in particular be directed towards establishing—

- (a) whether the Department should make any application to the court, or exercise any of its other powers under this Ordinance, with respect to the child;
- (b) whether, in the case of a child with respect to whom an emergency protection order has been made, or who is not in accommodation provided by or on behalf of the Department, it would be in the best interests of the child (while an emergency protection order remains in force) for him to be in such accommodation; and
- (c) whether, in the case of a child who has been taken into police protection, it would be in his best interests to ask for an application to be made under section 56(6).

(4) Where enquiries are being made under subsection (1) with respect to a child, the Department shall (with a view to enable it to determine what action, if any, to take with respect to him) take such steps as are reasonably practicable—

- (a) to obtain access to him; or
- (b) to ensure that access to him is obtained, on its behalf, by a person authorised by it for the purpose, unless the Department is satisfied that it already has sufficient information with respect to him.

(5) Where, as a result of any enquiries made under this section, it appears to the Department that there are matters connected with the education of the child that should be investigated, it shall consult the Chief Education Officer¹⁶.

(6) Where, in the course of enquiries made under this section any officer of the Department, or any person authorised by the Department to act on its behalf in connection with those enquiries, is refused access to the child concerned, or is denied information as to his whereabouts, the Department shall apply for an emergency protection order, a child assessment order, a care order or a supervision order unless it is satisfied that his welfare can be satisfactorily safeguarded without its doing so.

(7) If, on the conclusion of any enquiries or review made under this section, the Department decides not to apply for an order mentioned in subsection (6), it shall—

(a) consider whether it would be appropriate to review the case at a later date; and

(b) if it decides that it would be, determine the date on which that review is to begin.

(8) Where, as a result of complying with this section, the Department concludes that it should take action to safeguard or promote the child's welfare, it shall take that action (so far as it is both within its power and reasonably practicable for it to do so).

Discovery of children in need of protection

58. (1) Where it appears to a court making an emergency protection order that adequate information as to the child's whereabouts is not available to the Department but is available to another person, it may include in the order a provision requiring that person to disclose, if asked to do so by the Department, any information that he may have as to the child's whereabouts.

(2) No person shall be excused from complying with such a requirement on the ground that complying might incriminate him or his spouse of an offence; but a statement or admission made in complying shall not be admissible in evidence against either of them in proceedings for any offence other than perjury.

(3) An emergency protection order may authorise a constable to enter premises specified in the order and search for the child with respect to whom the order is made.

(4) Where the court is satisfied that there is reasonable cause to believe that there may be another child on those premises with respect to whom an emergency protection order ought to be made, it may make an order authorising a constable to search for that other child on those premises.

(5) Wherever it is reasonably practicable to do so, an order under subsection (4) shall name the child; and where it does not name him it shall describe him as clearly as possible.

(6) Where—

(a) an order has been made under subsection (4);

(b) the child concerned has been found on the premises; and

(c) the Department is satisfied that the grounds for making an emergency protection order exist with respect to him, the order shall have effect as if it were an emergency protection order.

(7) Where an order has been made under subsection (4), the Department shall notify the Clerk of the Peace of its effect; and the Clerk of the Peace shall make a note thereof against the entry relating to the order in the court register.

(8) A person who intentionally obstructs any person exercising any power conferred by

- (b) has run away or is staying away from the responsible person; or
- (c) is missing,

the court may make an order under this section (a “recovery order”):

Provided that nothing in this section shall be construed as preventing a police officer who has reasonable cause to suspect that a child who has absconded from apprehending such child without a warrant and returning him or her to the responsible person.

(2) A recovery order—

- (a) operates as a direction to any person who is in a position to do so to produce the child on request to any authorised person;
- (b) authorises the removal of the child by any authorised person;
- (c) requires any person who has information as to the child's whereabouts to disclose that information, if asked to do so, to any authorised person; and

(3) A court may make a recovery order on the application of—and may do so in separate proceedings or in any proceedings under this Ordinance.

(4) A recovery order shall name the child and the person who is the responsible person, and shall not specify any premises under subsection (2)(d) unless it appears to the court that there are reasonable grounds for believing the child to be in them.

(5) A person who intentionally obstructs an authorised person exercising a power under subsection (2)(b) to remove a child shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £2,500.

(6) No person shall be excused from complying with a request under subsection (2)(c) on the ground that complying might incriminate him or his spouse of an offence; but a statement or admission made in complying shall not be admissible in evidence against either of them in proceedings for any offence other than perjury.

(7) In this section—

“authorised person” means—

- (a) any person specified by the court;

Evidence by children

90. (1) A child's evidence in criminal proceedings shall be given unsworn.

(2) A deposition of a child's unsworn evidence may be taken for the purposes of criminal proceedings as if that evidence had been given on oath.

(3) Unsworn evidence admitted under this section may corroborate evidence (sworn or unsworn) given by another person.

(4) A child's evidence shall be received unless it appears to the court that the child is incapable of giving intelligible testimony.

(5) The power of a court in any criminal proceedings to determine that a particular person is not competent to give evidence applies to children of tender years as it applies to other persons.

(6) Where a child is called as a witness in any civil proceedings and does not, in the opinion of the court, understand the nature of an oath, his evidence may be heard by the court if, in its opinion,—

- (a) he understands that it is his duty to speak the truth; and
- (b) he has sufficient understanding to justify his evidence being heard.

(7) If a child giving evidence unsworn intentionally gives false evidence in circumstances in which he would, if it had been given on oath, have been guilty of perjury, he shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £2,500; and the court by which he is convicted may exercise in relation to him any of the powers referred to in section 224(1) of the Criminal Procedure Ordinance Cap. 23.

Admissibility of hearsay evidence

91. In any of the following proceedings—

- (a) any civil proceedings before the Supreme Court;
- (b) family proceedings before the Magistrates' Court, evidence given in connection with the upbringing, maintenance or welfare of a child shall be admissible notwithstanding any rule of law relating to hearsay.

Powers in relation to certain offences

92. (1) Where, in any proceedings relating to a violent or sexual offence, the court is satisfied that the attendance before it of any child or young person in respect of whom the offence is alleged to have been committed is not essential to the just hearing of the case, it may proceed with and determine the case in the absence of the child or young person.

(2) Where a justice of the peace is satisfied by the evidence of a registered medical practitioner that the attendance before a court of any child or young person in respect of whom a violent or sexual offence is alleged to have been committed would involve serious danger to his life or health, the justice—

- (a) may in accordance with rules of court take in writing the deposition of the child or young person (on oath, in the case of a young person);
- (b) shall thereupon sign the deposition and add to it a statement of—
 - (i) his reason for taking it;
 - (ii) the time when and place where it was taken; and
 - (iii) the names of the persons (if any) present when it was taken; and
- (c) shall transmit the deposition with his statement to the Registrar.

(3) Where, in any proceedings in respect of a violent or sexual offence—

- (a) the court is satisfied by the evidence of a registered medical practitioner that the attendance before the court of any child or young person in respect of whom the offence is alleged to have been committed would involve serious danger to his life or health; and
- (b) any deposition of the child or young person tendered in evidence appears to have been taken in accordance with rules of court and purports to be signed by the justice by or before whom it purports to have been taken, then, subject to subsection (4), the deposition shall be admissible in evidence either for or against the accused person without further proof thereof.

(4) A deposition shall not be admissible in evidence against the accused person by virtue of subsection (3) unless it is proved—

- (a) that reasonable notice of the intention to take the deposition has been served upon him; and
- (b) that he or his advocate had, or might have had if he had chosen to be present, an opportunity of cross-examining the child or young person making the deposition.

- (5) For purposes of this section, “violent or sexual offence” means—
- (a) an offence which leads, or is intended or likely to lead, to a person's death or to physical injury to a person, or an offence which is required to be charged as arson; or
 - (b) an offence under the Sexual Offences Act, 2003.

Identification of child or young person in media

93. (1)¹⁸ Subject to subsection (3), no report of any proceedings in any court either in St Helena or Ascension shall be published in St. Helena in any manner whatsoever, which—

- (a) reveals the name, address or school; or
- (b) includes any particulars calculated to lead to the identification, of any child or young person concerned in those proceedings, either as being the person against or in respect of whom the proceedings are taken or as being a witness therein.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), no picture shall be published in any newspaper or periodical or included in a relevant programme as being or including a picture of any child or young person so concerned in any such proceedings.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), a court may in any case by order dispense with the requirements of subsection (1) or (2) to such extent as may be specified in the order.

(4) A court shall not exercise the power conferred by subsection (3) unless it is satisfied that it is in the interests of justice to do so.

(5) If a report or picture is published or included in a relevant programme in contravention of this section, each of the following persons—

- (a) in the case of a publication of a written report as part of, or of a picture in, a newspaper or periodical, any proprietor, editor or publisher of the newspaper or periodical;
- (b) in the case of a publication of a written report otherwise than as part of a newspaper or periodical, the person who published it;
- (c) in the case of the inclusion of a report or picture in a relevant programme, any body corporate which is engaged in providing the service in which the programme is included and any person having functions in relation to the programme corresponding to those of an editor of a newspaper, is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £5,000.

Findings of guilt, etc.

94. (1) The words “conviction” and “sentence” shall not be used in relation to children and young persons dealt with summarily.

(2) Any reference in any enactment (whenever passed) to a person convicted, a conviction or a sentence shall, in the case of a child or young person, be construed as including a reference to a person found guilty of an offence, a finding of guilty or an order made upon such a finding, as the case may be.

(3) In any proceedings for an offence committed or alleged to have been committed by a person of or over the age of 21—

- (a) any offence of which he was found guilty while under the age of 14 shall be disregarded for the purposes of any evidence relating to his previous convictions; and
- (b) he shall not be asked, and if asked shall not be required to answer, any question relating to such an offence.

¹⁸ Section 93(1) amended by Ord. 12 of 2011

Power to impose penalty, etc. on parent of child or young person

95. (1) Subject to subsection (2), where—

- (a) a child or young person is convicted or found guilty of any offence for the commission of which a fine or costs may be imposed or a compensation order may be made under section 125 of the Criminal Procedure Ordinance Cap. 23; and
- (b) the court is of opinion that the case would best be met by the imposition of a fine or costs or the making of such an order, whether with or without any other punishment, the court shall order that the fine, compensation or costs awarded be paid by the parent or guardian of the child or young person instead of by the child or young person himself.

(2) The court shall not make an order under subsection (1) if it is satisfied—

- (a) that the parent or guardian cannot be found; or
- (b) that it would be unreasonable to make an order for payment, having regard to the circumstances of the case.

(3) Where a child or young person is convicted or found guilty of any offence, the court by which sentence is imposed on him or any order is made against him in respect of that offence may order his parent or guardian to give security for his good behaviour.

(4) An order under this section shall not be made against a parent or guardian unless—

- (a) he has been required to attend but has failed to do so; or
- (b) he has been given an opportunity of being heard.

(5) Where an order is made against a parent or guardian under this section—

- (a) he may appeal against it; and
- (b) any sums ordered to be paid by him under subsection (1), or payable by him on forfeiture of any security under subsection (3), may be recovered from him, as if the order had been made on his conviction of the offence with which the child or young person was found guilty.

(6) In this section “guardian”, in relation to a child or young person, includes any individual who in the court's opinion has the actual care of him.

Power to make supervision order in criminal proceedings

96. (1) Subject to section 224 of the Criminal Procedure Ordinance (detention of young offenders), where a child or a young person is found guilty of any offence by or before any court, that court or the court to which his case is remitted may make a supervision order in respect of him, that is, an order placing him under the supervision of—

- (a) the Department;
- (b) an officer of the Department designated for the purpose by the Department; or
- (c) if the Department consents in the particular case, a probation officer.

(2) If a court makes a supervision order under this section while another such order, or a care order or a supervision order under section 42, made by any court is in force in respect of the child or young person, it may also revoke the earlier order.

(3) Schedule 4 has effect with respect to supervision orders under subsection (1).

Proceedings for offences

97. (1) Proceedings for an offence under this Part shall not be instituted except by or with the consent of the Attorney General.

(2) Where an offence under this Part committed by a body corporate is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to have been attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate or a person who was purporting to act in any such capacity, he as well as the body corporate is guilty of that offence and liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(3) Where the affairs of a body corporate are managed by its members, subsection (2) applies in relation to the acts and defaults of a member in connection with his functions of management as if he were a director of the body corporate.

(4) A person committing an offence under this Part is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £5,000 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months.

PART XII

ADOPTION

Division 1

Adoption orders

Adoption orders

98. (1) An adoption order is an order by the court vesting the parental responsibility relating to a child in the adopters, made—

- (a) on their application; or
- (b) on their behalf by the Department.

(2) An adoption order does not affect the parental responsibility so far as they relate to any period before the making of the order.

(3) The making of an adoption order operates to extinguish—

- (a) any parental responsibility relating to the child which—
 - (i) is vested in a person (not being one of the adopters) who was the parent or guardian of the child immediately before the making of the order; or
 - (ii) is vested in any other person by virtue of the order of any court; and
- (b) any duty arising by virtue of an agreement or the order of a court to make payments, so far as the payments are in respect of the child's maintenance for any period after the making of the order or any other matter comprised in the parental responsibility and relating to such a period.

(4) Subsection (3)(b) does not apply to a duty arising by virtue of an agreement—

- (a) which constitutes a trust; or
- (b) which expressly provides that the duty is not to be extinguished by the making of an adoption order.

(5) An adoption order cannot be made in relation to a child who is or has been married.

(6) An adoption order may contain such terms and conditions as the court thinks fit.

(7) An adoption order may be made notwithstanding that the child is already an adopted child.

Child to live with adopters before order is made

99.¹⁹ (1) Where—

- (a) the applicant, or one of the applicants, is a parent, step-parent or relative of the child; or
- (b) the child was placed with the applicants by the Department or in pursuance of an order of the court,

¹⁹ Section 99(1) amended by Ord. 11 of 2013 an adoption order cannot be made unless the child is at least 16 weeks old and at all times during the preceding ten weeks had his home with the applicants or one of them, whether as a result of being placed with the applicants or one of them by the Department, or otherwise.

(2) Where subsection (1) does not apply, an adoption order cannot be made unless the child is at least 12 months old and at all times during the preceding six months had his home with the applicants or one of them.

(3) An adoption order cannot be made unless the court is satisfied that sufficient opportunities to see the child with the applicant or, in the case of an application by a married couple, both applicants together in the home environment have been afforded to the Department.

Adoption by married couple

100. (1) An adoption order may be made on the application of a married couple where each has attained the age of 18 years but an adoption order cannot otherwise be made on the application of more than one person.

(2)²⁰ An adoption order cannot be made on the application of a married couple unless at least one of them is domiciled in St Helena, the United Kingdom or such other place as the Court may approve.

Adoption by one person

101. (1) An adoption order may be made on the application of one person where he has attained the age of 21 years and—

- (a) is not married; or
- (b) is married and the court is satisfied that—
 - (i) his or her spouse cannot be found; or
 - (ii) the spouses have separated and are living apart, and the separation is likely to be permanent; or
 - (iii) his or her spouse is by reason of ill-health, whether physical or mental, incapable of making an application for an adoption order.

(2)²¹ An adoption order cannot be made on the application of one person unless such person is domiciled in St Helena, the United Kingdom or such other place as the Court may approve.

(3) An adoption order cannot be made on the application of the mother or father of the child alone unless the court is satisfied that—

- (a) the other natural parent is dead or cannot be found; or
 - (b) there is some other reason justifying the exclusion of the other natural parent,
- and where such an order is made the reason justifying the exclusion of the other natural parent must be recorded by the court.

Parental agreement

102.²² (1) An adoption order cannot be made unless—

- (a) the child is free for adoption by virtue of an order made under section 103; or
- (b) in the case of each parent or guardian of the child the court is satisfied that—
 - (i) he freely, and with full understanding of what is involved, agrees

²⁰ Section 100(2) substituted by Ord. 11 of 2013

²¹ Section 101(2) substituted by Ord. 11 of 2013

²² Section 102 amended by Ord. 11 of 2013

- unconditionally to the making of an adoption order (whether or not he knows the identity of the applicants); or
- (ii) his agreement to the making of the adoption order should be dispensed with on a ground specified in subsection (2).
- (2) The grounds mentioned in subsection (1)(b)(ii) are that the parent or guardian—
 - (a) cannot be found or is incapable of giving agreement; or
 - (b) the welfare of the child requires that consent be dispensed with.
- (3) Agreement is ineffective for the purposes of subsection (1)(b)(i) if given by the mother less than six weeks after the child's birth.
- (4) ...

Freeing child for adoption

103. (1) Where, on an application by the Department, a court is satisfied in the case of each parent or guardian of the child that—

- (a) he freely, and with full understanding of what is involved, agrees generally and unconditionally to the making of an adoption order; or
- (b) his agreement to the making of an adoption order should be dispensed with on a ground specified in section 102(2), the court must make an order declaring the child free for adoption.

(2) An application cannot be made under subsection (1) unless—

- (a) it is made with the consent of a parent or guardian of a child; or
- (b) the Department is applying for dispensation under subsection (1)(b) of the agreement of each parent or guardian of the child, and the child is in the care of the Department.

(3) An agreement required under subsection (1)(a) cannot be dispensed with under subsection (1)(b) unless—

- (a) the child is already placed for adoption; or
- (b) the court is satisfied that it is likely that the child will be placed for adoption.

(4) An agreement by the mother of the child is ineffective for the purposes of this section if given less than six weeks after the child's birth.

(5) On the making of an order under this section, the parental responsibility relating to the child vests in the Department, and section 98(2) and (3) apply as if the order were an adoption order and the Department was the adopter.

(6) Before making an order under this section, the court must satisfy itself, in relation to each parent or guardian of the child who can be found, that he has been given an opportunity of making, if he so wishes, a declaration that he prefers not to be involved in future questions concerning the adoption of the child; and any such declaration is to be recorded by the court.

(7) Before making an order under this section in the case of an illegitimate child whose father is not its guardian, the court must satisfy itself in relation to any person claiming to be the father that either—

- (a) he has no intention of applying for an order granting parental responsibility under section 12(1)(b); or
- (b) if he did apply for custody under section 12(1)(b) the application would be likely to be refused.

Progress reports to former parents

104. (1) This section and section 105 apply to any person ("the former parent"), who was required to be given an opportunity of making a declaration under section 103(6) but did not do so.

(2) Within the 14 days following the date 12 months after the making of the order under section 103 the Department, unless the Department has previously by notice to the former parent informed him that an adoption order has been made in respect of the child, must by notice to the former parent inform him—

- (a) whether an adoption order has been made in respect of the child; and
- (b) if not, whether the child has his home with a person with whom he has been placed for adoption.

(3) If at the time when the former parent is given notice under subsection (2) an adoption order has not been made in respect of the child, it is thereafter the duty of the Department to give notice to the former parent of the making of an adoption order (if and when made), and meanwhile to give the former parent notice whenever the child is placed for adoption or ceases to have his home with a person with whom he has been placed for adoption.

(4) If at any time the former parent by notice makes a declaration to the Department that he prefers not to be involved in future questions concerning the adoption of the child—

- (a) the Department shall secure that the declaration is recorded by the court which made the order under section 103; and
- (b) the Department is released from the duty of complying further with subsection (3) as respects that former parent.

Revocation of section 103 order

105. (1) The former parent, at any time more than 12 months after the making of the order under section 103 when—

- (a) no adoption order has been made in respect of the child; and
- (b) the child does not have his home with a person with whom he has been placed for adoption, may apply to the court which made the order for a further order revoking it on the ground that he wishes to resume the parental rights and duties.

(2) While the application is pending the Department must not place the child for adoption without the leave of the court.

(3) Where an order freeing a child for adoption is revoked under this section—

- (a) the parental responsibility relating to the child are vested in the individual or, as the case may be, in the individuals in whom they vested immediately before that order was made; and
- (b) if the parental responsibility vested in the Department immediately before the order freeing the child for adoption was made, that parental responsibility is vested in the individual, or as the case may be, the individuals in whom they vested immediately before they were vested in the Department; and
- (c) any duty extinguished by virtue of section 98(3)(b) is forthwith revived, but the revocation does not affect any parental responsibility so far as it relates to any period before the date of the revocation.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), if the application is dismissed on the ground that to allow it would contravene the principle embodied in section 3—

- (a) the former parent who made the application is not entitled to make any further application under subsection (1) in respect of the child; and
- (b) the Department is released from the duty of complying further with section 104(3) as respects that parent.

(5) Subsection (4)(a) does not apply where the court which dismissed the application gives leave to the former parent to make a further application under subsection (1), but such leave must not be given unless it appears to the court that because of a change in circumstances or for any other reason it is proper to allow the application to be made.

Notification to the Department of adoption application

106. (1) An adoption order must not be made in respect of a child who was not placed with the applicant by the Department unless the applicant has, at least three months before the date of the order, given notice to the Department of his intention to apply for the adoption order.

(2) On receipt of such a notice the Department must investigate the matter and submit to the court a report of the investigation.

(3) Under subsection (2), the Department must in particular investigate so far as is practicable, the suitability of the applicant, and any other matters relevant to the operation of section 3 in relation to the application.

Report where child placed by Department

107. Where an application for an adoption order relates to a child placed by the Department, the Department must—

- (a)* submit to the court a report on the suitability of the applicants and any other matters relevant to the operation of section 3; and
- (b)* assist the court in any manner the court may direct.

Restrictions on making adoption order

108. The court must not proceed to hear an application for an adoption order in relation to a child where a previous application for an adoption order made in relation to the child by the same person was refused by any court unless—

- (a)* in refusing the previous application the court directed that this subsection should not apply; or
- (b)* it appears to the court that because of a change in circumstances or for any other reason it is proper to proceed with the application.

Interim orders

109. (1) Where on an application for an adoption order the requirements of sections 102(1) and 106(1) are complied with, the court may postpone the determination of the application and make an order vesting the parental responsibility for the child in the applicants for a probationary period not exceeding two years upon such terms for the maintenance of the child and otherwise as the court thinks fit.

(2) Where the probationary period specified in an order under subsection (1) is less than two years, the court may by a further order extend the period to a duration not exceeding two years in all.

Care, etc. of child on refusal of adoption order

110. (1) Where on an application for an adoption order in relation to a child the court refuses to make the adoption order then—

- (a)* if it appears to the court that there are exceptional circumstances making it desirable that the child should be under the supervision of an independent person, the court may order that the child shall be under the supervision of the Department;

- (b) if it appears to the court that there are exceptional circumstances making it impracticable or undesirable for the child to be entrusted to either of the parents or to any other individual, the court may by order commit the child to the care of the Department.

(2) Where the court makes an order under subsection (1)(b) the order may require the payment by either parent to the Department, while the Department has the care of the child, of such weekly or other periodical sum towards the maintenance of the child as the court thinks reasonable.

Restrictions on removal where adoption agreed or application made under section 103

111. (1) While an application for an adoption is pending in a case where a parent or guardian of the child has agreed to the making of the adoption order, (whether or not he knows the identity of the applicant), the parent or guardian must not, against the will of the person with whom the child has his home, remove the child from the actual custody of that person except with the leave of the court.

(2) While an application is pending for an order freeing a child for adoption and—

(a) the child is in the care of the Department; and

(b) the application was not made with the consent of each parent or guardian of the child, a parent or guardian of the child must not, against the will of the person with whom the child has his home, remove the child from the actual custody of that person except with the leave of the court.

(3) A person who fails to comply with the provisions of this section is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £1,000.

Restrictions on removal where applicant provided home for five years

112. (1) While an application for an adoption order in respect of a child made by the person with whom the child has had his home for the five years preceding the application is pending, a person must not, against the will of the applicant, remove the child from the applicant's actual custody except—

(a) with the leave of a court; or

(b) under authority conferred by an enactment; or

(c) on the arrest of the child.

(2) Where a person ("the prospective adopter") gives notice to the Department that he intends to apply for an adoption order in respect of a child who for the preceding five years has had his home with the prospective adopter, a person must not, against the will of the prospective adopter, remove the child from the prospective adopter's actual custody, except—

(a) with the leave of a court; or

(b) under authority conferred by an enactment; or

(c) on the arrest of the child,

before the earlier of—

(i) when the prospective adopter applies for the adoption order; or

(ii) at the end of the period of three months from the receipt of the notice by the Department.

(3) In any case where subsection (1) or (2) applies and—

(a) the child was in the care of the Department before he began to have his home with the applicant or, as the case may be, the prospective adopter; and

(b) the child remains in the care of the Department, the Department must not remove the child from the actual custody of the applicant or of the prospective adopter except—

- (i) in accordance with section 114; or
- (ii) with the leave of a court.

(4) Subsection (2) does not apply to any further notice served by the prospective adopter on the Department in respect of the same child—

- (a) during the period referred to in paragraph (e) of that subsection; or
- (b) within 28 days after its expiry.

(5) A person who fails to comply with the provisions of subsection (1) or (2) is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £1,000.

Return of child taken away in breach of section 111 or 112

113. (1) A court may on the application of—

- (a) a person from whose actual custody a child has been removed in breach of section 111 or 112; or
- (b) the Department,

order the person who has so removed the child to return the child to the person from whose actual custody the child has been removed.

(2) A court may on the application of—

- (a) a person who has reasonable grounds for believing that another person is intending to remove a child from the applicant's actual custody in breach of section 111 or 112; or
- (b) the Department,

by order direct that other person not to remove the child from the actual custody of the first-mentioned person in breach of section 111 or 112.

(3) If, in the case of an order made under subsection (1), the court is satisfied that the child has not been returned to the applicant, the court may make an order authorising an officer of the court to search such premises as may be specified in the order for the child and, if the officer finds the child, to return the child to the applicant.

(4) If a Justice of the Peace is satisfied by information on oath that there are reasonable grounds for believing that a child to whom an order under subsection (1) relates is in premises specified in the information, he may issue a search warrant authorising a police officer to search the premises for the child; and if a police officer acting in pursuance of a warrant under this section finds the child, he must return the child to the person on whose application the order under subsection (1) was made.

(5) An order under subsection (3) may be enforced in like manner as a warrant for committal.

Return of child placed for adoption by Department

114. (1) Subject to subsection (2), at any time after a child has been delivered into the actual custody of any person in pursuance of arrangements made by the Department for the adoption of the child by that person, and before an adoption order has been made on the application of that person in respect of the child—

- (a) that person may give notice to the Department of his intention not to retain the actual custody of the child; or
 - (b) the Department may give that person notice that the Department does not intend to allow the child to remain in the person's actual custody.
- (2) A notice must not be given under subsection (1)(b) in respect of a child in relation to whom an application has been made for an adoption order except with the leave of the court to which the application has been made.

(3) Where—

- (a) a notice is given to the Department by a person or by the Department to a person under subsection (1); or
- (b) where an application for an adoption order made by a person in respect of a child placed in his actual custody by the Department is refused by the court or withdrawn, that person must, within seven days after the date on which—

- (i) notice was given; or
- (ii) the application was refused or withdrawn, as the case may be, cause the child to be returned to the Department.

(4) Where the period specified in an interim order made under section 109 (whether as originally made or as extended under subsection (2) of that section) expires without an adoption order having been made in respect of the child, subsection (3) applies as if the application for an adoption order upon which the interim order was made, had been refused at the expiration of that period.

(5) Where an application for an adoption order is refused the court may, if it thinks fit at any time before the expiry of the period of seven days mentioned in subsection (3) order that period to be extended to a duration, not exceeding six weeks, specified in the order.

(6) A person who fails to comply with the provisions of subsection (3) is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £1,000.

Meaning of “protected child”

115. (1) Where a person gives notice in pursuance of section 109(1) to the Department of his intention to apply for an adoption order in respect of a child, the child is for the purposes of this Part a protected child while he has his home with that person.

(2) A protected child ceases to be a protected child—

- (a) on the appointment of a guardian for him under this Ordinance;
- (b) on the notification to the Department that the application for an adoption order has been withdrawn;
- (c) on the making of any of the following orders in respect of the child—
 - (i) an adoption order;
 - (ii) an order under section 110;
 - (iii) an order vesting the parental responsibility of the child in any person; or
 - (iv) on his attaining the age of 18 years,whichever first occurs.

Removal of protected child from unsuitable surroundings

116. (1) If the court is satisfied, on the complaint of the Department, that a protected child is being kept or is about to be received—

- (a) by a person who is unfit to have his care; or
 - (b) in any premises or any environment detrimental or likely to be detrimental to him,
- the court may make an order for his removal to the care of the Department—

- (i) until he can be restored to a parent, relative or guardian of his; or
- (ii) until other arrangements can be made with respect to him.

(2) Where a child is removed under this section, the Department must, if practicable, inform a parent or guardian of the child, or any person who acts as his guardian.

Notice and information to be given to Department

117. (1) Where a person who has a protected child in his actual custody changes his permanent address he must—

- (a) not less than two weeks before the change; or
 - (b) if the change is made in an emergency, not later than one week after the change,
- give notice specifying the new address to the Department.

(2) If a protected child dies, the person in whose actual custody he was at his death must within 48 hours give notice of the child's death to the Department.

(3) A person who fails to comply with the provisions of this section is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £1,000.

Division 2
Status of Adopted Children

Meaning of “adoption”

118. (1) In this Division “adoption” means adoption by an adoption order.

(2) Nothing in this Division applies in respect of a person adopted under the law as in force before the commencement of this Ordinance and that law shall continue to apply in respect of such persons.

Interpretation

119. (1) In this Division, unless the context otherwise requires—
“disposition” includes the conferring of a power of appointment and any other disposition of an interest in or right over property;

“power of appointment” includes a discretionary power to transfer a beneficial interest in property without the furnishing of valuable consideration.

(2) This Division applies to an oral disposition as if contained in an instrument made when the disposition was made.

(3) For the purposes of this Division, the death of the testator is the date at which a will or codicil is to be regarded as made.

(4) For the purposes of this Division, provisions of the law of intestate succession applicable to the estate of a deceased person are to be treated as if contained in an instrument executed by him (while of full capacity) immediately before his death.

(5) It is hereby declared that references in this Division to dispositions of property include references to a disposition by the creation of an entailed interest.

Status conferred by adoption

120. (1) An adopted child is to be treated in law—

- (a) where the adopters are a married couple, as if he had been born as a child of the marriage (whether or not he was in fact born after the marriage was solemnized);
- (b) in any other case, as if he had been born to the adopter in wedlock (but not as a child of any actual marriage of the adopter).

(2) An adopted child is, subject to subsection (3), to be treated in law as if he were not the child of any person other than the adopters or adopter.

(3) In the case of a child adopted by one of its natural parents as sole adoptive parent, subsection (2) has no effect as respects entitlement to property depending on relationship to that parent, or as respects anything else depending on that relationship.

(4) It is hereby declared that this section prevents an adopted child from being illegitimate.

(5) This section has effect from the date of the adoption.

(6) Subject to the provisions of this Division, this section—

- (a) applies for the construction of enactments or instruments passed or made before the adoption or later, and so applies subject to any contrary indication; and
- (b) has effect as respects things done, or events occurring, after the adoption.

Adoptive relatives

121. A relationship existing by virtue of section 120 may be referred to as an adoptive relationship, and—

- (a) a male adopter may be referred to as the adoptive father;
- (b) a female adopter may be referred to as the adoptive mother;
- (c) any other relative of any degree under an adoptive relationship may be referred to as an adoptive relative of that degree, but this section does not prevent the term “parent”, or any other term not qualified by the word “adoptive” being treated as including an adoptive relative.

Rules of construction for instruments concerning property

122. (1) Subject to any contrary indication, the rules of construction contained in this section apply to any instrument, other than an instrument existing before the commencement of this Ordinance, so far as it contains a disposition of property.

(2) In applying section 120(1) to a disposition which depends on the date of birth of a child or children of the adoptive parent or parents, the disposition is to be construed as if—

- (a) the adopted child had been born on the date of adoption;
- (b) two or more children adopted on the same date had been born on that date in the order of their actual births, but this does not affect any reference to the age of a child.

(3) Examples of phrases in wills on which subsection (2) can operate are—

1. Children of A “living at my death or born afterwards”.
2. Children of A “living at my death or born afterwards before any one of such children for the time being in existence attains a vested interest and who attain the age of 21 years”.
3. As in example 1 or 2, but referring to grandchildren of A instead of children of A.
4. A for life “until he has a child”, and then to his child or children.

Note: Subsection (2) will not affect the reference to the age of 21 years in example 2.

(4) Section 127(2) does not prejudice any interest vested in possession in the adopted child before the adoption, or any interest expectant (whether immediately or not) upon an interest so vested.

(5) Where it is necessary to determine for the purposes of a disposition of property effected by an instrument whether a woman can have a child, it is to be presumed that once a woman has attained the age of 55 years she will not adopt a child after execution of the instrument, and, notwithstanding section 120, if she does so that child is not to be treated as her child or as the child of her spouse (if any) for the purposes of the instrument.

(6) In this section, “instrument” does not include an Ordinance.

Dispositions depending on date of birth

123. (1) Where a disposition depends on the date of birth of a child who was born illegitimate and who is adopted by one of the natural parents as sole adoptive parent section 122(2) does not affect entitlement under Division 4 of Part XIII.

(2) Subsection (1) applies for example where—

- (a) a testator dies in 2009 bequeathing a legacy to his eldest grandchild living at a specified time;
- (b) his daughter has an illegitimate child in 2010 who is the first grandchild;
- (c) his married son has a child in 2011;
- (d) subsequently the illegitimate child is adopted by the mother as sole adoptive parent, and in all those cases the daughter's child remains the eldest grandchild of the testator throughout.

Property devolving with peerages, etc. on adoption

124. (1) An adoption does not affect the descent of any peerage or dignity or title of honour.

(2) An adoption does not affect the devolution of any property limited (expressly or not) to devolve (as nearly as the law permits) along with any peerage or dignity or title of honour.

(3) Subsection (2) applies only if and so far as a contrary intention is not expressed in the instrument, and has effect subject to the terms of the instrument.

Protection of trustees and personal representatives

125. (1) A trustee or personal representative is not under a duty, by virtue of the law relating to trusts or the administration of estates, to enquire, before conveying or distributing property, whether an adoption has been effected or revoked if that fact could affect entitlement to the property.

(2) A trustee or personal representative is not liable to a person by reason of a conveyance or distribution of the property made without regard to any such fact if he has not received notice of the fact before the conveyance or distribution.

(3) This section does not prejudice the right of a person to follow the property, or any property representing it, into the hands of another person, other than a purchaser, who has received it.

Miscellaneous enactments

126. Section 120 does not apply—

- (a) for the purposes of construing the prohibited degrees of consanguinity or affinity in section 24 of the Marriage Ordinance, Cap. 80; or
- (b) for the purposes of construing sections 25 and 26 of the Sexual Offences Act, 2003, in their application to the Island.

Pensions

127. Section 120(2) does not affect entitlement to a pension which is payable to or for the benefit of a child and is in payment at the time of his adoption.

Insurance

128. Where a child is adopted whose natural parent has effected an insurance for the payment on the death of the child of money for funeral expenses, the rights and liabilities under the policy are by virtue of the adoption transferred to the adoptive parents who are to be treated as the person who took out the policy.

Division 3 Registration of Adoption Orders

Adopted Children Register

129. (1) The Registrar of Births and Deaths (hereinafter referred to as “the Registrar”) must maintain in the Registrar’s Office a register, to be called the Adopted Children Register, in which must be made such entries as may be directed to be made in the register by adoption orders, but no other entries.

(2) A certified copy of an entry in the Adopted Children Register, if purporting to be signed by the Registrar, is, without any further or other proof of that entry, to be received—

- (a)* as evidence of the adoption to which it relates; and
- (b)* where the entry contains a record of the date of the birth or the country or the district and sub-district of the birth of the adopted person – as evidence of that date or country or district and sub-district, in all respects as if the copy were a certified copy of an entry in the Register of Births.

(3) The Registrar must cause an index of the Adopted Children Register to be made and kept in the Registrar’s Office; and every person is entitled to search that index and to have a certified copy of any entry in the Adopted Children Register in all respects upon and subject to the same terms, conditions and regulations as to payment of fees and otherwise as are applicable under the Births and Deaths (Registration) Ordinance in respect of searches in other indexes kept in the Registrar’s Office and in respect of the supply from that office of certified copies of entries in the certified copies of the Registers of Births and Deaths.

(4) The Registrar must, in addition to the Adopted Children Register and the index of that Register, keep such other registers and books, and make such entries in them, as may be necessary to record and make traceable the connection between an entry in the Register of Births in respect of a person and any corresponding entry in the Adopted Children Register in respect of that person.

PART XIII LEGITIMACY

Division 1 Interpretation

Meaning of “legitimated person”

130. (1) In this Part “legitimated person” means a person legitimated by virtue of any provision of this Part.

(2) Nothing in this Part applies in respect of a person legitimated under the law as in force before the commencement of this Ordinance and that law shall continue to apply in respect of such persons.

Interpretation

This e-version of the text is not authoritative for use in court.

- 131. (1) In this Part—
“disposition” includes the conferring of a power of appointment and any other disposition of an interest in or right over property;
“power of appointment” includes a discretionary power to transfer a beneficial interest in property without the furnishing of valuable consideration;
“void marriage” means a marriage, not being voidable only, in respect of which the Supreme Court has or had jurisdiction to grant a decree of nullity, or would have or would have had such jurisdiction if the parties were domiciled in St. Helena.
- (2) This Part applies to an oral disposition as if contained in an instrument made when the disposition was made.
- (3) In this Part—
(a) the death of the testator is the date at which a will or codicil is to be regarded as made;
(b) an oral disposition of property is to be taken to be contained in an instrument made when the disposition was made.
- (4) It is hereby declared that references in this Part to dispositions of property include references to a disposition by the creation of an entailed interest.

Division 2

Legitimation by Marriage

Legitimacy of children of certain void marriages

- 132. (1) The child of a void marriage, whenever born, is to be treated as the legitimate child of his parents if—
(a) at the time of the act of intercourse resulting in the birth; or
(b) at the time of the celebration of the marriage if later, both or either of the parties reasonably believed that the marriage was valid.
- (2) This section only applies where the father of the child—
(a) was domiciled in the Island at the time of the birth; or
(b) if he died before the birth, was domiciled in the Island immediately before his death.

Legitimation by subsequent marriage of parents

- 133. (1) If the parents of an illegitimate person marry one another, the marriage renders that person, if living, legitimate from the date of the marriage if the father of the illegitimate person is at the date of the marriage domiciled in the Island.
- (2) If—
(a) the parents of an illegitimate person marry one another; and
(b) the father of the illegitimate person—
(i) is not at the time of the marriage domiciled in the Island; but
(ii) is domiciled in a country by the law of which the illegitimate person became legitimated by virtue of such subsequent marriage, that person, if living, is to be recognised in the Island as having been so legitimated from the date of the marriage notwithstanding that, at the time of his birth, his father was domiciled in a country the law of which did not permit legitimation by subsequent marriage.

Legitimation of adopted child

This e-version of the text is not authoritative for use in court.

134. (1) Section 120 does not prevent an adopted child being legitimated under section 132 or 133 if either natural parent is the sole adoptive parent.

(2) Where an adopted child (with a sole adoptive parent) is legitimated—

- (a)* section 120(2) does not apply after the legitimation to the natural relationship with the other natural parent; and
- (b)* revocation of the adoption order in consequence of the legitimation does not affect section 120, 121, or 122 as it applies to any instrument made before the date of legitimation.

Division 3

Property Rights of Legitimated Children

Rights of legitimated persons and others to take interests in property

135. (1) Subject to any contrary indication, the rules of construction contained in this section apply to any instrument other than an instrument existing before the commencement of this Ordinance, so far as the instrument contains a disposition of property.

(2) For the purposes of this section, provisions of the law of intestate succession applicable to the estate of a deceased person are to be treated as if contained in an instrument executed by him (while of full capacity) immediately before his death.

(3) A legitimated person, and any other person, is entitled to take any interest as if the legitimated person had been born legitimate.

(4) A disposition which depends on the date of birth of a child or children of the parent or parents is to be construed as if—

- (a)* a legitimated child had been born on the date of legitimation;
- (b)* two or more legitimated children legitimated on the same date had been born on that date in the order of their actual births,

but this does not affect any reference to the age of a child.

(5) Examples of phrases in wills on which subsection (4) can operate are—

1. Children of A “living at my death or born afterwards”.
2. Children of A “living at my death or born afterwards before any one of such children for the time being in existence attains a vested interest, and who attain the age of 21 years”.
3. As in example 1 or 2, but referring to grandchildren of A, instead of children of A.
4. A for life “until he has a child” and then to his child or children.

Note: Subsection (4) will not affect the reference to the age of 21 years in example 2.

(6) If an illegitimate person or a person adopted by one of his natural parents dies, or has died before the commencement of this Ordinance, and—

- (a)* after his death his parents marry or have married; and
- (b)* the deceased would, if living at the time of the marriage, have become a legitimated person, this section applies for the construction of the instrument so far as it relates to the taking of interests by, or in succession to, his spouse, children and remoter issue as if he had been legitimated by virtue of the marriage.

(7) In this section “instrument” does not include an Ordinance.

Dispositions depending on date of birth

136. (1) Where a disposition depends on the date of birth of a child who was born illegitimate and who is legitimated (or, if deceased, is treated as legitimated), section 135(4) does not affect entitlement under Division 4 of this Part.

This e-version of the text is not authoritative for use in court.

(2) Where a disposition depends on the date of birth of an adopted child who is legitimated (or, if deceased, is treated as legitimated) section 135(4) does not affect entitlement by virtue of section 122(2).

(3) This section applies for example where—

- (a) a testator dies in 2009 bequeathing a legacy to his eldest grandchild living at a specified time;
- (b) a daughter has an illegitimate child in 2010 who is the first grandchild;
- (c) his married son has a child in 2011;
- (d) subsequently the illegitimate child is legitimated, and in all those cases the daughter's child remains the eldest grandchild of the testator throughout.

Protection of trustees and personal representatives

137. (1) A trustee or personal representative is not under a duty, by virtue of the law relating to trusts or the administration of estates, to enquire, before conveying or distributing property, whether any person is illegitimate or has been adopted by one of his natural parents, and could be legitimated (or if deceased be treated as legitimated), if that fact could affect entitlement to the property.

(2) A trustee or personal representative is not liable to a person by reason of a conveyance or distribution of the property made without regard to any such fact if he has not received notice of the fact before the conveyance or distribution.

(3) This section does not prejudice the right of a person to follow the property, or any property representing it, into the hands of another person, other than a purchaser, who has received it.

Personal rights and obligations

138. A legitimated person has the same rights, and is under the same obligations in respect of the maintenance and support of himself or of any other person as if he had been born legitimate, and, subject to the provisions of this Ordinance, the provisions of any Ordinance relating to claims for damages, compensation, allowance, benefit or otherwise by or in respect of a legitimate child apply in like manner in the case of a legitimated person.

Re-registration of birth of legitimated person

139. (1) The—

- (a) parents of a legitimated person; or
- (b) in cases where re-registration can be effected on information furnished by one parent and one of the parents is dead, the surviving parent of a legitimated person, must furnish to the Registrar of Births and Deaths information with a view to obtaining the re-registration of the birth of the legitimated person within three months after the date of the marriage by virtue of which he was legitimated.

(2) The failure of the parents or either of them to furnish information as required by subsection (1) in respect of a legitimated person does not affect the legitimation of that person.

(3) This section does not apply in relation to a person who was legitimated otherwise than by virtue of the subsequent marriage of his parents.

(4) A person who fails to comply with subsection (1) is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £1,000.

Titles, etc

140. (1) Apart from section 132, nothing in this Part affects the succession to any dignity or title of honour or render any person capable of succeeding to or transmitting a right to succeed to any such dignity or title.

(2) Apart from section 132, nothing in this Part affects the devolvement of property limited (expressly or not) to devolve (as nearly as the law permits) along with any dignity or title of honour.

(3) Subsection (2) applies only if and so far as a contrary intention is not expressed in the instrument and has effect subject to the instrument.

Division 4 Property Rights of Illegitimate Children

Interpretation

141. (1) Nothing in this Part applies in respect of a disposition coming into force before the commencement of this Ordinance and the law in force at the time the disposition came into force shall continue to apply in respect of such a disposition.

(2) In this Part—

“disposition” includes the conferring of a power of appointment and any other disposition of an interest in or right over property;

“power of appointment” includes a discretionary power to transfer a beneficial interest in property without the furnishing of valuable consideration.

(3) This Part applies to an oral disposition as if contained in an instrument made when the disposition was made.

(4) For the purposes of this Part, the death of the testator is the date at which a will or codicil is to be regarded as made.

(5) For the purposes of this Part, provisions of the law of intestate succession applicable to the estate of a deceased person are to be treated as if contained in an instrument executed by him (while of full capacity) immediately before his death.

(6) It is hereby declared that references in this Part to dispositions of property include references to a disposition by the creation of an entailed interest.

Presumptions with respect to illegitimate children

142. (1) In a disposition—

(a) a reference (whether express or implied) to the child or children of a person, unless the contrary intention appears, is to be construed as, or as including, a reference to any illegitimate child of that person; and

(b) a reference (whether express or implied) to a person or persons related in some other manner to a person, unless the contrary intention appears, is to be construed as, or as including, a reference to anyone who would be so related if he, or some other person through whom the relationship is deduced, had been born legitimate.

(2) Subsection (1) applies only where the reference in question is—

(a) to a person who is to benefit or to be capable of benefiting under the disposition; or

(b) for the purpose of designating such a person, to someone else to or through whom that person is related, but subsection (1) does not affect the construction of the word “heir” or “heirs” or of any expression which is used to create an entailed interest in real or personal property.

(3) In relation to a disposition made after the coming into force of this section, section 33 of the Trustee Act 1925 (which specifies the trusts implied by a direction that income is to be held on protective trusts for the benefit of a person) is to have effect as if—

- (a) the reference to the children or more remote issue of the principal beneficiary included a reference to any illegitimate child of the principal beneficiary and to anyone who would rank as such issue if he, or some other person through whom he is descended from the principal beneficiary, had been born legitimate; and
- (b) the reference to the issue of the principal beneficiary included a reference to anyone who would rank as such issue if he, or some other person through whom he is descended from the principal beneficiary, had been born legitimate.

(4) Where under a disposition real or personal property or an interest in such property is limited (whether subject to a preceding limitation or charge or not) in such a way that it would, apart from this section, devolve (as nearly as the law permits) along with a dignity or title of honour, then, whether or not the disposition contains an express reference to the dignity or title of honour, and whether or not the property or some interest in the property may in some event become severed therefrom, nothing in this section operates to sever the property or any interest therein from the dignity or title, but the property or interest is to devolve in all respects as if this section had not been enacted.

(5) There is hereby abolished, as respects dispositions made after the coming into force of this section, any rule of law that a disposition in favour of illegitimate children not in being when the disposition takes effect is void as contrary to public policy.

Protection of trustees and personal representatives

143. (1) A trustee or personal representative is not under a duty, by virtue of the law relating to trusts or the administration of estates, to enquire, before conveying or distributing property, whether any person is entitled to an interest in it by virtue of section 142.

(2) A trustee or personal representative is not liable to a person by reason of a conveyance or distribution of the property made without regard to any such fact if he has not received notice of the fact before the conveyance or distribution.

(3) This section does not prejudice the right of a person to follow the property, or any property representing it, into the hands of another person, other than a purchaser, who has received it.

PART XIV OFFENCES AGAINST CHILDREN AND YOUNG PERSONS

Cruelty to children and young persons

144. (1) Every person who, having attained the age of 17 years and having the actual custody, charge or care of any child or young person wilfully assaults, ill-treats, neglects abandons or exposes such child or young person, or causes or procures him to be assaulted, ill-treated, neglected, abandoned or exposed, in a manner likely to cause that child or young person unnecessary suffering or injury to health (including injury to or loss of sight, or hearing, or limb, or organ of the body, and any mental derangement) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable—

- (a) on conviction on indictment before the Supreme Court, to a fine not exceeding £2,000 or to imprisonment for any term not exceeding two years, or to both such fine and imprisonment;
- (b) on conviction before a court of summary jurisdiction, to a fine not exceeding £500 or to imprisonment for any term not exceeding three months, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

(2) For the purposes of this section—

- (a) the parent or other person legally liable to maintain a child or young person shall be deemed to have neglected him in a manner likely to cause injury to his health if, being able to do so, such parent or other person fails to provide adequate food, clothing, rest, medical aid or lodging for him;
- (b) where it is proved that the death of an infant under three years of age was caused by suffocation (not being suffocation caused by disease or the presence of any foreign body in the throat or air passages of the infant) while the infant was in bed with some other person who has attained the age of 17 years and was at the time of going to bed under the influence of drink or any drug, then that other person shall be deemed to have neglected that infant in a manner likely to cause injury to the infant's health;
- (c) any person having attained the age of 17 years who gives or causes to be given, or sells or causes to be sold, to any child under the age of ten years any intoxicating liquor, except upon the order of a duly qualified medical practitioner, or in case of sickness, apprehended sickness, or other urgent cause, shall be deemed to have ill-treated that child in a manner likely to cause injury to the child's health;
- (d) any person, having attained the age of 17 years and having the custody, charge or care of any child under the age of seven years, who allows that child to be in any room or yard containing a stove, coal-stove or open fire-place, not sufficiently protected to guard against the risk of that child being burnt or scalded, without taking reasonable precautions against the risk, and by reason thereof that child is killed or suffers serious injury, shall be deemed to have neglected that child in a manner likely to cause injury to that child's health:

Provided that neither this paragraph, nor any proceedings taken thereunder, shall affect the liability of any person to be indicted for manslaughter or for any offence against the Offences against the Person Act, 1861.

(3) A person may be convicted for an offence under this section—

- (a) notwithstanding that the actual suffering or injury to health, or the likelihood of actual suffering or injury to health, was obviated by the action of some other person;
- (b) notwithstanding the death of the child or young person in respect of whom the offence is committed.

(4) Upon the trial of any person who has attained the age of 17 years for infanticide or for the manslaughter of a child or young person of whom he has the custody, charge or care, it shall be lawful for the jury, if they are satisfied that he is guilty of an offence under this section to find him guilty of that offence.

(5) Nothing in this section shall be construed as affecting the right of any parent, teacher or other person having lawful control or charge of a child to administer reasonable punishment to him.

Begging and soliciting for prostitution

145. (1) Every person who—

- (a) causes or procures any child or young person; or
- (b) having the custody, charge or care of a child or young person, allows him, to be in any street, premises or place for the purpose of begging or receiving alms, soliciting for prostitution or of inducing the giving of alms (whether or not there is any pretence of singing, playing, performing, offering anything for sale, or otherwise) shall be guilty of an offence against this Ordinance.

(2) If a person having the custody, charge or care of a child or young person is charged with an offence under this section and it is proved—

This e-version of the text is not authoritative for use in court.

- (a) that the child or young person was in any street, premises or place for any purpose as is mentioned in subsection (1); and
- (b) that the person charged allowed the child or young person to be in the street, premises or place, he shall be presumed to have allowed him to be in the street, premises or place for that purpose unless the contrary is proved.

Allowing children to be in brothels

146. (1) If any person having the custody, charge or care of a child who has attained the age of four years, allows that child to reside in or frequent a brothel, he shall be guilty of an offence against this Ordinance.

(2) Nothing in this section shall affect the liability of a person to be indicted under the Sexual Offences Act, 2003, but upon the trial of a person under that Act it shall be lawful for the jury, if they are satisfied he is guilty of an offence under this section, to find him guilty of that offence.

Causing or encouraging prostitution

147. (1) Any person who, having the custody, charge or care of a child under the age of 18 years, causes or encourages the seduction, unlawful carnal knowledge, or prostitution of, or the commission of an indecent assault upon such child, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to imprisonment for any term not exceeding two years.

(2) For the purposes of this section a person shall be deemed to have caused or encouraged the seduction, unlawful carnal knowledge, or prostitution of, or commission of an indecent assault upon, a child who has been seduced, unlawfully carnally known, or indecently assaulted, or who has become a prostitute, if he has knowingly allowed such child to consort with, or enter or continue in the employment of, any prostitute or person of known immoral character.

Causing or allowing children to be in bars of licensed premises

148. (1) The holder of a licence of any licensed premises shall not allow any child at any time to be in the bar of the licensed premises during the permitted hours.

(2) If the holder of a licence acts in contravention of this section, or if any person causes, or procures, or attempts to cause or procure, any child to go to, or to be in, the bar of any licensed premises during the permitted hours, he shall be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding, in respect of the first offence, £100, and in respect of any subsequent offence, £1,000.

(3) If a child is found in the bar of any licensed premises during the permitted hours, the holder of the licence shall be deemed to have committed an offence under this section unless he proves that he used due diligence to prevent such child from being admitted to the bar or that the child had apparently attained the age of 16 years.

(4) In this section the expression “bar” in relation to any licensed premises means any open drinking bar or any part of the premises exclusively or mainly used for the sale and consumption of intoxicating liquor; the expressions “licence” and “licensed premises” have the same meanings as in the Liquor Ordinance, and the expression “permitted hours” means those hours of the day during which intoxicating liquor may be lawfully supplied in licensed premises.

Safety of children at entertainments

149. (1) Where there is provided in any building an entertainment for children, or an entertainment at which the majority of persons attending are children, it shall be the duty of the person or persons providing the entertainment to take all reasonable steps to station and keep stationed wherever necessary a sufficient number of attendants, properly instructed as to their duties and being not less than eighteen years of age, to prevent more children or other persons being admitted to the building, or to any part thereof, than the building can properly accommodate, and to control the movement of the children and other persons admitted while entering or leaving the building or part thereof, and to take all other reasonable precautions for the safety of the children and the prevention of fire.

(2) Any person failing to fulfil the obligations imposed on him by this section shall be guilty of an offence against this Ordinance.

(3) Any police officer who has reason to believe that such an entertainment as aforesaid is being, or is about to be, provided in any building may enter such building with a view to ascertaining whether the provisions of subsection (1) are being complied with.

PART XV ATTACHMENT OF EARNINGS ORDERS

Interpretation

150. (1) In this Part—

“Clerk of the Peace” means the public officer appointed under section 9 of the Magistrates’ Court Ordinance, Cap. 10, to be the Clerk of the Peace;

“earnings” are any sums payable to a person—

(5) Where a periodical payments order under paragraph 1 ceases to have effect on the date on which the child attains the age of 16 or at any time after that date but before or on the date on which he attains the age of 18, the child may apply to the court for an order for its revival.

(6) If on such an application it appears to the court—

- (a) that the child is, will be or (if an order were made under this paragraph) would be receiving instruction at any educational establishment or undergoing instruction for a trade, profession or vocation, whether or not while in gainful employment; or
- (b) that there are special circumstances which justify the making of an order under this sub-paragraph, the court may by order revive the order from such date as the court may specify, not being earlier than the date of the application.

(7) An order that is revived by an order under sub-paragraph (6) may be varied or revoked under that sub-paragraph, on the application of any person by or to whom payments are required to be made under the revived order.

(8) Where an application to vary a secured periodical payments order is made after the death of the parent liable to make payments under the order, the circumstances that the court is required to have regard under sub-paragraph (2) include the changed circumstances resulting from the death of the parent.

Variation etc. of previous orders

7. Where a residence order is made with respect to a child at a time when there is in force an order made under an enactment other than this Ordinance and requiring a person to contribute to the child's maintenance, the court may on the application of—

(a) any person required by the previous order to contribute to the child's maintenance; or

(b) any person in whose favour a residence order with respect to the child is in force, make an order revoking the previous order, or varying it by altering the amount of any sum payable under that order or by substituting the applicant for the person to whom any such sum is otherwise payable under that order.

Interim orders

8. (1) Where the court has power under paragraph 1 or 2 to make any order, it may, at any time before it disposes of the matter, make an interim order—

(a) requiring either or both parents to make such periodical payments, at such times for such term as the court thinks fit; and

(b) giving any direction which the court thinks fit.

(2) An interim order under this paragraph may provide for payments to be made from such date as the court may specify, not being earlier than the date of the making of the application under paragraph 1 or 2 or, where no such application is made, the commencement of the family proceedings in question.

(3) An interim order under this paragraph shall cease to have effect when the matter is disposed of or, if earlier, on the expiry of the term specified under sub-paragraph (1)(a).

(4) An interim order may be varied by extending the term specified under sub-paragraph (1)(a).

Alteration of maintenance agreements

9. (1) Where a maintenance agreement is for the time being subsisting and each of the parties to it is for the time being domiciled or resident in the Island, then, subject to sub-paragraph (3), either party may apply to the court for an order under this paragraph.

(2) If the court is satisfied either—

(a) that, by reason of a change in the circumstances in the light of which any financial arrangements contained in the agreement were made (including a change foreseen by the parties when making the agreement), the agreement should be altered so as to make different financial arrangements; or

(b) that the agreement does not contain proper financial arrangements with respect to the child, then subject to sub-paragraphs (3) and (4), the court may by order make such alterations in the agreement by varying or revoking any financial arrangements contained in it as may appear to the court to be just having regard to all the circumstances.

(3) If the agreement is altered under this paragraph, it shall have effect thereafter as if any alteration made by the order had been made by agreement between the parties and for valuable consideration.

(4) Where the court decides to alter an agreement by an order under this paragraph—

- (a) by inserting provision for the making or securing by one of the parties to the agreement of periodical payments for the maintenance of the child; or
- (b) by increasing the rate of periodical payments required to be made or secured by one of the parties for the maintenance of the child, then, in deciding the term for which under the agreement as altered by the order the payments, or the additional payments attributable to the increase, are to be made or secured for the benefit of the child, the court shall apply the provisions of paragraph 4(1), (2) and (3) as if the order were an order under paragraph 1.

(5) Nothing in this paragraph affects any power of a court before which any proceedings between the parties to a maintenance agreement are brought under any other enactment to make an order containing financial arrangements, or any right of either party to apply for such an order in such proceedings.

Maintenance agreement - supplemental

10. (1) Where a maintenance agreement provides for the continuation, after the death of one of the parties, of payments for the maintenance of the child and that party dies domiciled in the Island, the surviving party or the personal representatives of the deceased party may, subject to paragraph 11, apply to the court for an order under paragraph 9.

(2) If a maintenance agreement is altered by the court on an application under this paragraph, the like consequences shall ensue as if the alteration had been made, immediately before the death, by agreement between the parties and for valuable consideration.

Variation etc. affecting deceased's estate

11. (1) An application for—

- (a) the variation or revocation of a secured periodical payments order after the death of the parent liable to make payments under that order; or
- (b) for the alteration of a maintenance agreement by virtue of paragraph 10, shall not, except with the permission of the court, be made after the end of a period of six months from the date on which representation in regard to the estate of the deceased parent is first taken out.

(2) The personal representatives of the deceased parent shall not be liable for having distributed any part of the estate of the deceased after the expiration of the period of 6 months referred to in sub-paragraph (1) on the ground that they ought to have taken into account the possibility that the court might permit such an application to be made after that period.

(3) Sub-paragraph (2) does not prejudice any power to recover any part of the estate so distributed arising by virtue of the making of an order on an application referred to in sub-paragraph (1).

(4) In considering for the purposes of sub-paragraph (1) the question when representation was first taken out, a grant limited to trust property shall be left out of account, and a grant limited to real estate shall be left out of account unless a grant limited to the remainder of the estate has previously been made or is made at the same time.

Enforcement

12. (1) Where the Supreme Court makes a periodical payments order, it shall order that the payments shall be made to the Registrar unless, upon representations expressly made in that behalf by the person to whom payments under the order fall to be made, it is satisfied that it is undesirable to do so.

(2) Any person for the time being under an obligation to make payments in pursuance of a periodical payments order shall give notice of any change of address to such person (if any) as may be specified in the order; and any person who without reasonable excuse fails to give such a notice shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £1,000.

Department's contribution to child maintenance

13. (1) Where a child lives, or is to live, with a person as a result of a residence order, the Department may make contributions to that person towards the cost of the accommodation and maintenance of the child.

(2) Subparagraph (1) does not apply where the person with whom the child lives, or is to live, is a parent of the child or the husband or wife of a parent of the child.

- (4) Any person who fails without reasonable excuse to comply with sub-paragraph (2)(b) is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £1,000.
- (5) It is a defence in any proceedings under sub-paragraph (4) to prove that the defendant—

- (ii) any individual who is not a parent of his but who has parental responsibility for him, has been infrequent; or
- (b) he has not visited or been visited by (or lived with) any such person during the preceding 12 months,
- and that it would be in the child's best interests for an independent person to be appointed to be his visitor for the purposes of this paragraph, it shall appoint such a visitor.

This e-version of the text is not authoritative for use in court.

- (2) A person so appointed—
 - (a) shall visit, advise and befriend the child; and
 - (b) may recover from the Department any reasonable expenses incurred by him for the purposes of his functions under this paragraph.
- (3) A person's appointment as a visitor in pursuance of this paragraph may be determined by—

 - (a) the child objects to it; and
 - (b) the Department is satisfied that he has sufficient understanding to make an informed decision.

- (2) Where the Department has undertaken any such obligation under any deed it may at any time (whether or not it is still looking after the person concerned) undertake the like obligation under any supplemental deed.

Review of cases etc.

- 5. (1) The Department shall make arrangements for periodically reviewing the case of every child while he is being looked after by the Department.
- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of sub-paragraph (1), in performing its duty under that sub-paragraph the Department shall—
 - (a) seek and take into account, so far as it is reasonably practicable to do so, the views of—
 - (i) the child himself;
 - (ii) his parents;
 - (iii) any other individual who has parental responsibility for him; and
 - (iv) any other person whose views the Department consider to be relevant;
 - (b) where the child is in the care of the Department, consider whether to apply for the revocation of the relevant care order; and

- (3) The Department shall establish a procedure for considering any representations (including any complaint) with respect to the treatment of a child who is or has been looked after by it made to it by—

 - (b) its procedure established under sub-paragraph (3).

Arrangements to assist children to live abroad

6. (1) The Department may with the approval of every person who has parental responsibility for him arrange for, or assist in arranging for, any child looked after by it (except a child in its care) to live outside the Island.

(2) The Department may with the approval of the court arrange for, or assist in arranging for, any child in its care to live outside the Island.

(3) The court shall not give its approval under sub-paragraph (2) unless it is satisfied that—

- (a) living outside the Island would be in the child's best interests;
- (b) suitable arrangements have been, or will be, made for his reception and welfare in the country in which he will live;
- (c) the child has consented to living in that country; and
- (d) every person who has parental responsibility for the child has consented to his living in that country.

(4) Where the court is satisfied that the child does not have sufficient understanding to give or withhold his consent, it may disregard sub-paragraph (3)(c) and give its approval if the child is to live in the country concerned with a parent, guardian, or other suitable person.

(5) Where a person whose consent is required by sub-paragraph (3)(d) fails to give his consent, the court may disregard that provision and give its approval if it is satisfied that that person—

- (a) cannot be found;
- (b) is incapable of consenting; or
- (c) is withholding his consent unreasonably.

(6) Where the court decides to give its approval under this paragraph it may order that its decision is not to have effect during the appeal period.

(7) In this paragraph—

“the appeal period” means—

- (a) where an appeal is made against the decision, the period between the making of the decision and the determination of the appeal; and
- (b) otherwise, the period during which an appeal may be made against the decision.

Death of children being looked after by Department

7. (1) If a child who is being looked after by the Department dies, the Department—

- (a) shall, so far as is reasonably practicable, notify the child's parents and every person who is not a parent of his but who has parental responsibility for him;
- (b) shall notify the police and the coroner;
- (c) may, with the consent (so far as it is reasonably practicable to obtain it) of every person who has parental responsibility for the child, arrange for the child's body to be buried or cremated in accordance with the religious beliefs of the child; and
- (d) may, if the conditions mentioned in sub-paragraph (2) are satisfied, make payments to any person who has parental responsibility for the child, or any relative, friend or other person connected with the child, in respect of travelling, subsistence or other expenses incurred by that person in attending the child's funeral.

(2) The conditions are that—

- (a) it appears to the Department that the person concerned could not otherwise attend the child's funeral without undue financial hardship; and
- (b) that the circumstances warrant the making of the payments.

(3) Where the Department has exercised its power under sub-paragraph (1)(c) with respect to a child who was under 16 when he died, it may recover from any parent of the child any expenses incurred by it, and any sums so recoverable may, without prejudice to any other method of recovery, be recoverable summarily as a civil debt.

(4) Nothing in this paragraph affects any enactment regulating or authorising the burial, cremation or anatomical examination of the body of a deceased person.

Persons formerly looked after by the Department

8. (1) This paragraph applies to a person within the Island who is under the age of 21 and who was, at any time after reaching the age of 16 but while still a child—

- (a) looked after by the Department;
- (b) accommodated in a children's home;
- (c) accommodated in a residential care home, or psychiatric home for a consecutive period of at least 3 months (whether or not that period began after he reached the age of 16); or
- (d) privately fostered, but who is no longer so looked after, accommodated or fostered.

(2) If—

- (a) the Department knows that there is in the Island a person to whom this paragraph applies;
- (b) it appears to the Department that he is in need of advice and being befriended;
- (c) where he was not being looked after by the Department, the Department is satisfied that the person by whom he was being looked after is not able to advise and befriend him, and
- (d) he has asked the Department for help of a kind which it is able to give under this paragraph, the Department may advise and befriend him, and may also give him assistance in kind or, in exceptional circumstances, in cash.

(3) Paragraph 4 applies in relation to a person to whom this paragraph applies as it applies in relation to a child who is being looked after by the Department.

Schedule 3 [Section 31(6)]

Contributions towards Maintenance

1. (1) Where the Department is looking after a child (except where he is looked after by the Department under section 32(1)(c) or a care order that is an interim order), and it considers that it is reasonable to do so, it shall take such steps as are practicable to recover contributions towards the child's maintenance from any person liable to contribute (a “contributor”).

(2) The persons liable to contribute are—

- (a) the weekly sum which it considers that he should contribute; and
- (b) arrangements for payment.
- (2) Arrangements for payment shall, in particular, include—
 - (a) the date on which liability to contribute begins (which shall not be earlier than the date on which the notice is served on the contributor);
 - (b) the date on which liability under the notice will end, if the child has not before that date ceased to be looked after by the Department; and
 - (c) the date on which the first payment is to be made.
- (3) The Department may specify in a contribution notice a weekly sum that is a standard contribution determined by it for all children looked after by the Department.
- (4) The Department shall not specify in a contribution notice a weekly sum greater than that which it considers—
 - (a) it would normally be prepared to pay if it had placed a similar child with official foster parents; and
 - (b) it is reasonably practicable for the contributor to pay (having regard to his means).
- (5) The Department may at any time withdraw a contribution notice (without prejudice to its power to serve another).
- (6) Where the Department and the contributor agree—
 - (a) the sum which the contributor is to contribute; and
 - (b) arrangements for payment,(whether as specified in the contribution notice or otherwise) and the contributor notifies the Department in writing that he so agrees, the Department may recover from him any contribution which is overdue and unpaid.
- (7) A contributor may, by serving a notice in writing on the Department, withdraw his agreement in relation to any period of liability falling after the date of service of the notice.
- (8) The Governor in Council may make regulations with respect to the procedures to be followed by the Department in reaching an agreement with a contributor and other matters relevant or incidental to the carrying into effect of this Schedule.

Contribution orders

3. (1) Where a contributor has been served with a contribution notice and has—
- (a) failed to reach any agreement with the Department as mentioned in paragraph 2(6) within the period of one month beginning with the day on which the contribution notice was served; or

(b) served a notice under paragraph 2(7) withdrawing his agreement, the Department, unless it has withdrawn the notice, may apply to the Magistrates' Court for an order under this paragraph.

(2) On such an application the court may make an order (a "contribution order") requiring the contributor to contribute a weekly sum towards the child's maintenance in accordance with arrangements for payment specified by the court.

(3) In making a contribution order the court—

(a) shall not specify a weekly sum greater than that specified in the contribution notice; and

(b) shall have regard to the contributor's means.

(4) A contribution order shall not—

(a) take effect before the date specified in the contribution notice; or

(b) have effect while the contributor is not liable to contribute (by virtue of paragraph 1); or

(c) remain in force after the child has ceased to be looked after by the Department.

(5) Where—

(a) a contribution order is in force;

(b) the Department serves another contribution notice; and the order shall cease to have effect on the date on which it is agreed that the agreement shall take effect.

(6) Where an agreement is reached under sub-paragraph (5) the Department shall notify the Registrar of the agreement and of the date on which it took effect.

 - (b) a period as a resident patient is necessary if the examination is to be carried out properly.
- (4) No court shall include a requirement under this paragraph in a supervision order unless it is satisfied that—

- (5) This paragraph does not apply in the case of an interim order or an order pending appeal.

- (b) is of opinion—
 - (i) that the treatment should be continued beyond the period specified in that behalf in the order; or
 - (ii) that the supervised child needs different treatment; or
 - (iii) that he is not susceptible to treatment; or
 - (iv) that he does not require further treatment, the registered medical practitioner shall make a report in writing to that effect to the supervisor.

- (5) On receiving a report under sub-paragraph (4) the supervisor shall refer it to a court, and on such a reference the court may make an order cancelling or varying the requirement.

(6) This paragraph does not apply in the case of an interim order or an order pending appeal.

Restriction on directions

6. The total number of days in respect of which a supervised child or responsible person may be required to comply with directions given under paragraph 2 or 3 shall not exceed 90 or such lesser number, if any, as may be specified in the order.
