

St Helena Government
Agriculture and Natural Resources Division
BIOSECURITY

Import health standards summary table

Commodity	Licence required	Other documentation required	Treatment required	Further details
Aquarium gravel – small quantities	No	None	Clean	Import Health Standards being drafted: refer General Guidelines for Importers
Bee products and bee equipment	Yes	Zoosanitary certificate	Refer Import Health Standard for details	Bee products and bee equipment Import Health Standards
Citrus trees or slips	Yes	Phytosanitary certificate	Depends on species and country of origin	Plant Material Import Health Standards
Compost (see also peat)	No	None	Clean	Import Health Standards being drafted: refer General Guidelines for Importers
Construction materials	No	None	Clean	General Guidelines for Importers
Dogs and cats from Ascension Island	Yes	Veterinary Health certificate UK DEFRA Export Health Certificate	Animal has identification microchip	Ascension Island Dog and Cat Import Health Standards
Dogs and cats from the UK and Republic of Ireland	Yes	Veterinary Health certificate Validated pet passport if not resident for 6 months prior to export	Animal has identification microchip	UK and ROI Dog and Cat Import Health Standards

Commodity	Licence required	Other documentation required	Treatment required	Further details
Fresh produce for human consumption	Yes	Phytosanitary certificate Export Inspection Certificate Fumigation certificate	Fumigation for peaches, nectarines and mangoes	Fresh Produce Import Health Standards
Fruit trees or slips	Yes	Phytosanitary certificate	Depends on species and country of origin	Plant Material Import Health Standards
Handicrafts	No	None	Clean	Import Health Standards being drafted: refer General Guidelines for Importers
Household goods	No	None	Clean	General Guidelines for Importers
Live ornamental fish	Yes	None	Clean water	Guidelines for Importers of Live Fish
Machinery, new and used	No	None	Clean	Import Health Standards being drafted: refer General Guidelines for Importers
Mushroom spawn	Yes	None	Clean	Plant Material Import Health Standards
Peat from RSA	No	Phytosanitary certificate	Sourced from an area free from Food and Mouth Disease	Import Health Standards being drafted: refer General Guidelines for Importers
Peat from the UK	No	None	Clean	Import Health Standards being drafted: refer General Guidelines for Importers
Plant material for growing purposes	Yes	Phytosanitary certificate	Depends on species and country of origin	Plant Material Import Health Standards
Rock, stone, pebbles – small quantities	No	None	Clean	Import Health Standards being drafted: refer General Guidelines for Importers
Rock, stone, pebbles – large quantities	No	Treatment certificate	Fumigation, irradiation or heat treatment	Import Health Standards being drafted: refer General Guidelines for Importers
Rose bushes or slips	Yes	Phytosanitary certificate	Depends on species and country of origin	Plant Material Import Health Standards

Commodity	Licence required	Other documentation required	Treatment required	Further details
Sand – large quantities	No	Treatment certificate	Fumigation, irradiation or heat treatment	Import Health Standards being drafted: refer General Guidelines for Importers
Sand – small quantities	No	None	Clean	Import Health Standards being drafted: refer General Guidelines for Importers
Sawdust	No	None	Clean	Import Health Standards being drafted: refer General Guidelines for Importers
Seed potatoes	Yes	Phytosanitary certificate	Must comply with Seed Certification schemes	Plant Material Import Health Standards
Timber	No	None	Clean	General Guidelines for Importers
Vehicles, new and used	No	None	Clean	Import Health Standards being drafted: refer General Guidelines for Importers
Wood chippings and wood shavings	No	None	Clean	Import Health Standards being drafted: refer General Guidelines for Importers
Wooden artefacts	No	None	Clean	Import Health Standards being drafted: refer General Guidelines for Importers