

Andrew Turner was first elected to the Legislative Council of Saint Helena in October 2021, representing the districts of Blue Hill and Sandy Bay. He currently serves as the Minister responsible for the Education, Skills and Employment Portfolio.

Andrew formerly served as chair of the the Employment Rights Committee and as the Legislative Council's representative on the National Trust Council. He has previously been nominated as a Culture Champion and has participated in various working groups, including the Tax and Revenue Working Group and Select Committee 2.

His involvement in local politics began during his school years, and he has remained actively engaged in community issues throughout his public service career.