

How our Government looks under the...

PRESENT COMMITTEE SYSTEM

The following illustrations depict how Legislative Council, Executive Council, and Council Committees look under the Present Committee System of Governance for St Helena.

For a more detailed look at this system, including explanations of how it works, check out the Governance Reform Information Booklet available in local shops, key locations, and on the SHG Website

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL

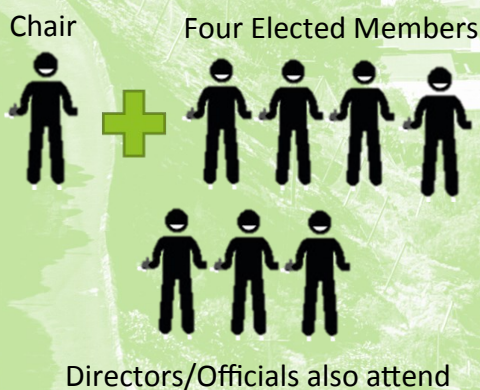

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

COUNCIL COMMITTEES

(Chaired by Elected Members of ExCo)

(There is also a Finance Committee and Public Accounts Committee, but they are made up differently to the above)

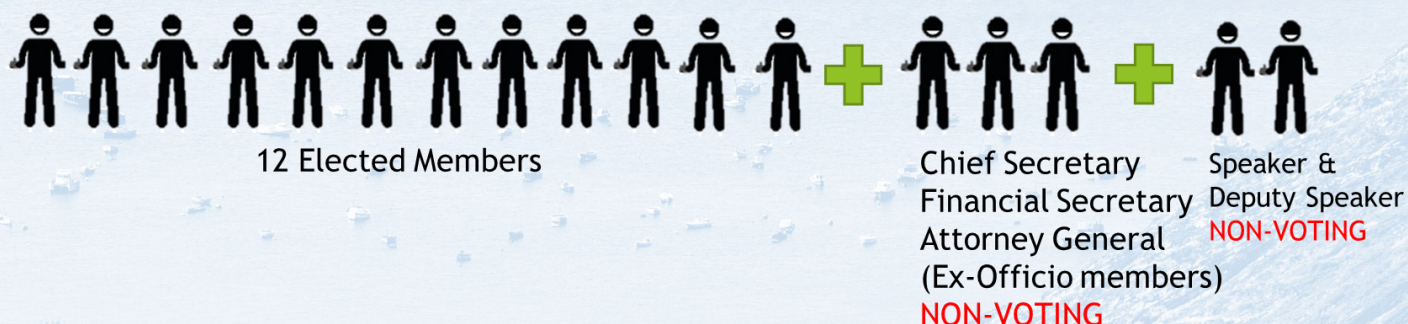

How our Government would look under the...

REVISED COMMITTEE SYSTEM

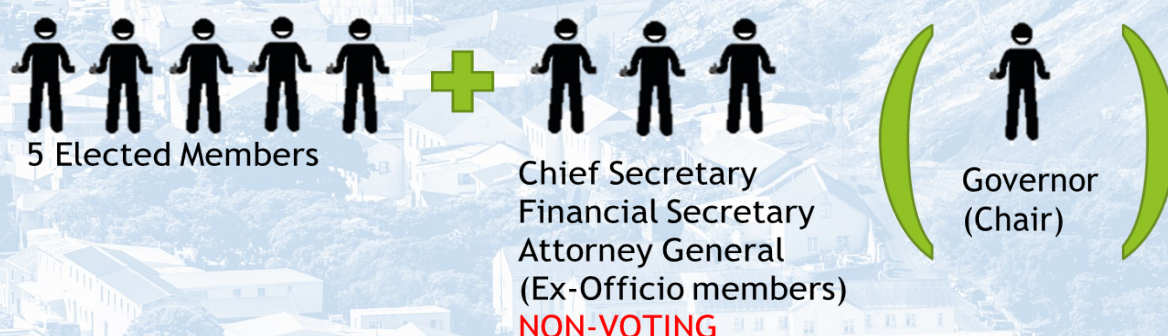

The following illustrations depict how Legislative Council, Executive Council, and Council Committees would look under a Revised Committee System of Governance for St Helena.

For a more detailed look at this system, including explanations of how it works, check out the Governance Reform Information Booklet available in local shops, key locations, and on the SHG Website

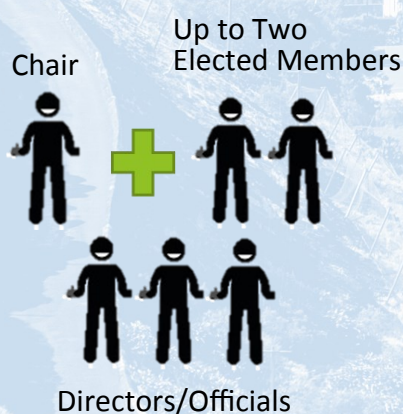

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL

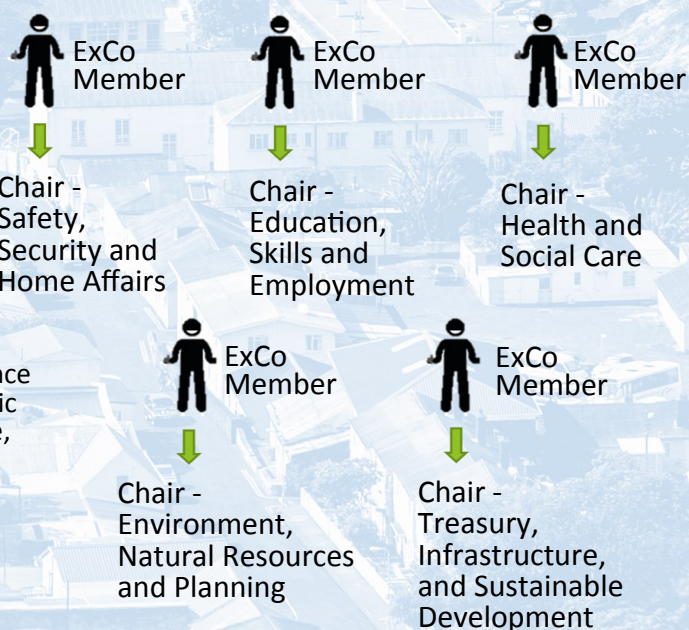

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

COUNCIL COMMITTEES (Chaired by Elected Members of ExCo)

(There is also a Finance Committee and Public Accounts Committee, but they are made up differently)

The names in the graphic (above, right) are the proposed revised portfolios following the restructure of SHG

How our Government would look under the...

MINISTERIAL SYSTEM

The following illustrations depict how Legislative Council, Executive Council, Cabinet, Ministries and Legislators would look under a Ministerial System of Governance for St Helena.

For a more detailed look at this system, including explanations of how it works, check out the Governance Reform Information Booklet available in local shops, key locations, and on the SHG Website

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL

12 Elected Members
(Chief Minister, 4 Ministers, 7 Legislators)

The Chief Minister is elected by the 12 Elected Members.
The 4 Ministers are chosen by the Chief Minister

Attorney General
NON-VOTING

Speaker & Deputy Speaker
NON-VOTING

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

Chief Minister

4 Ministers

Attorney General
NON-VOTING

Governor (Chair)

CABINET

Chief Minister

4 Ministers

LEGISLATORS

7 Elected Members that are not Ministers

MINISTRIES (Chief Minister to appoint a Ministry to each Minister and also, possibly, them self)

Chief Minister/
Minister

Treasury,
Infrastructure
& Sustainable Development

Chief Minister/
Minister

Health &
Social care

Chief Minister/
Minister

Safety,
Security and Home
Affairs

Chief Minister/
Minister

Environment,
Natural Resources
and Planning

Chief Minister/
Minister

Education, Skills
and Employment

(There will not be any Council Committees in this system, but the Public Accounts Committee will remain)

The Ministry names in the graphic above are the proposed revised portfolios following the restructure of SHG