

BURIAL GROUNDS ORDINANCE, 1895

PROCLAMATION

By His Excellency
Philip Rushbrook, Esquire,
Governor of St Helena

Philip Rushbrook
Governor

WHEREAS it is provided in section 2 of the Burial Grounds Ordinance, 1895, that the Governor in Council may at any time by Proclamation declare any Crown land to be a cemetery;

AND WHEREAS it is required that additional burial space be made available on St Helena, due to the lack of space within the existing New Cemetery;

NOW THEREFORE I, Philip Rushbrook, Governor of St Helena, in consultation with the Executive Council and acting in accordance with section 2 of the Burial Grounds Ordinance, 1895, declare the following parcels of land as a cemetery as an extension to, and forming part of, the New Cemetery referred to in section 5(1)(a) of the Ordinance:

1. Parcels 1 and 2 of the Diana's Peak Ring Road Registration Section
2. Parcel 435 of the Alarm Forest Registration Section.

GIVEN under my hand and the public Seal of St Helena at the Castle, Jamestown this day of June 2019.
