AN ORDINANCE to make fresh provision relating to the application of English law in St Helena.

<sup>2</sup> Section 8 requires the Attorney General to make an annual report to the Legislative Council, so the St Helena legislature is involved in decisions on the application of UK laws. However, for guidance in determining whether English laws are applicable to St Helena by virtue of this Ordinance, and if so what modifications, qualifications, adaptations and exemptions should apply, see the court judgments set out in the Annex to the General Introduction to the website.

Short title and commencement

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the English Law (Application) Ordinance, 2005 and comes into force on 1 January 2006.

Adopted English law

2. In this Ordinance, “Adopted English Law” means:
- (a) the common law of England, including the rules of equity; and
  - (b) the Acts of Parliament which are in force in England at the time of commencement of this Ordinance.

Application of Adopted English Law to St Helena

3. (1) Subject to subsection (2) and other provisions of this Ordinance, the Adopted English Law applies in St Helena.

(2) The Adopted English Law applies to St Helena only in so far as it is applicable and suitable to local circumstances, and subject to such modifications, adaptations, qualifications and exceptions as local circumstances render necessary.<sup>3</sup>

Exclusion of Adopted English Law in certain circumstances

4. The Adopted English Law applies to St Helena only insofar as it is not inconsistent with—
- (a) any enactment of the Parliament of the United Kingdom which extends to St Helena otherwise than by virtue of this Ordinance;<sup>4</sup>
  - (b) any Order of Her Majesty in Council which extends to St Helena otherwise than by virtue of this Ordinance;<sup>5</sup> or
  - (c) any provision made by or under any law enacted by a legislature in St Helena.

Governor in Council may make Orders

5. The Governor in Council may, by Order published in the Gazette, do any or all of the following:

- (a) declare that any specified part of the Adopted English Law is not suitable to local circumstances; and that such part is accordingly excepted from the provisions of section 3 by subsection (2) of that section;
- (b) direct that any part of the Adopted English Law is to have effect subject to any modifications specified in the Order;
- (c) direct that any Act of Parliament which is not within section 2(b) is (subject to any modifications prescribed in the Order) to be in force in St Helena.

<sup>4</sup> See Part A of ‘UK Laws Applied to St Helena’ on this website

<sup>5</sup> See Part B of ‘UK Laws Applied to St Helena’ on this website

Orders to be laid before Legislative Council

6. An Order made by the Governor in Council under section 5 must be laid before the Legislative Council at its next meeting after the publication of the Order in the Gazette; and does not come into force until ratified by a resolution of the Legislative Council.

Attorney General to publish information

7. (1) The Attorney General must, within one month of every resolution of the Legislative Council under section 6, cause an up-to-date schedule to be published listing all Orders then in force under section 5.

(2) Every such schedule must be published in the Gazette; and, when so published, becomes the sole authentic record (in all courts and for all purposes) of such Orders in force on the date of publication of it.

Annual Report to the Legislative Council

8. The Attorney General must, not later than the 31st day of March in each year (commencing in 2007) present to the Legislative Council a report upon the Acts of Parliament enacted in England during the preceding calendar year and include in that report, in relation to each such Act:

- (a) a short description of the purpose and effect of the Act; and
- (b) a report of the action, if any, taken or intended to be taken under section 5 of this Ordinance in relation to that Act.

Repeal, transitional and saving provisions

9. (1) The English Law (Application) Ordinance (Cap 5) (“the old law”) is repealed.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), all Orders made by the Governor in Council under section 4 of the old law continue to have effect as if made under section 5 of this Ordinance.
