2. In these Rules—

“Committee” means the Visiting Committee established under Part V;

“sentence” means the sentence of imprisonment being served by a prisoner pursuant to an order of a court made upon his or her conviction for a criminal offence, and includes any such sentence being served in default of payment of a fine or other monetary penalty imposed by the court upon his or her conviction;
“Superintendent” means the Superintendent of Prisons appointed in accordance with section 4 of the Ordinance;
“unconvicted prisoner” means a prisoner awaiting a trial, a prisoner on remand, a prisoner committed for contempt of court, a prisoner convicted but not sentenced, or a prisoner under lawful temporary detention without charge, but does not include a prisoner detained for an indeterminate term at the pleasure of the Governor, and “convicted prisoner” is to be construed accordingly.

PART II GENERAL

Admission, search and briefing of prisoners

3. (1) Immediately upon the admission of a prisoner into prison the Superintendent must cause to be entered—

- (a) in the Prisoners Admission Book the name of the prisoner, whether he or she is convicted, and, if so, the date of commencement and expiration of the sentence, the prisoner's age, height, weight and other details relevant to his or her identification;
- (b) in the Reconviction Book the name of every prisoner admitted into prison on a second or subsequent conviction; and
- (c) in the Prisoners Property Book any property found upon the prisoner at the time of his or her admission into prison.

(2) Subject to Rule 16, immediately upon the admission of a prisoner into prison the prisoner must be searched by a prison officer of the same sex as the prisoner concerned, in as seemly a manner (out of sight of other prisoners) as is consistent for the discovery of anything concealed.

(3) Every prisoner must be provided, within 24 hours of his or her admission into prison, with sufficient information about these Rules and any other matters which it is necessary for the prisoner to know, including the proper method of making requests and complaints.

(4) The Superintendent may require that any prisoner admitted into prison be photographed and fingerprinted.

- (5) A copy of these Rules must be made available to any prisoner who requests it.

Classification and separation of prisoners

4. (1) Subject to Rule 5 the Superintendent must, at intervals of not more than 3 months, classify prisoners according to their age, temperament and record, with a view to categorising them in accordance with the security categorisation set out in the Schedule.

(2) Pursuant to sub-rule (1), the Superintendent must keep, maintain and make available for inspection by the Governor or the Committee at their request a Prisoner's Categorisation Book.

(3) As far as reasonably possible, unconvicted prisoners must be kept apart from convicted prisoners, unless any unconvicted prisoner is willing to associate with convicted prisoners.

Female prisoners

- 5. (1) Female prisoners must be kept entirely separate from male prisoners.

(2) The Superintendent may, subject to any conditions he or she thinks fit, permit a female prisoner to nurse or tend her child in prison, in which case everything necessary for the child's maintenance and care must be provided there.

Privileges

6. (1) For the encouragement of the good conduct, industry and rehabilitation of prisoners the Superintendent must, subject to the approval of the Governor, establish a system of privileges for the prison, including schemes for the employment of prisoners.

(2) The Governor must determine how money earned under any approved scheme for the employment of prisoners is to be utilised, including what percentage may be paid to any prisoner who participates in any such scheme.

Remission of sentence

7. (1) Subject to this rule the Superintendent may, on account of a prisoner's good conduct and industry while in prison, grant him or her a remission of portion of his or her sentence not exceeding one third of the prisoner's adjudged term, if his sentence is 30 days or more.

(1A) The Superintendent may, on granting remission under sub-rule (1), impose any conditions that appear to him or her to be desirable either generally or in a particular case, and any such conditions may be varied from time to time or cancelled.

(2) A prisoner referred to in sub-rule (1) must be discharged when that part of the adjudged term of his or her sentence less the period of remission has been served.

(3) In calculating for the purposes of this rule how much of the adjudged term of a sentence of a prisoner remains to be served, account must be taken of the period during which that prisoner was, in respect of the offence for which he or she was convicted, remanded in custody by any court or by a Justice of the Peace either before conviction or subsequent to conviction and before the passing of the sentence, unless in passing sentence a court has specially directed that any such period is not to be taken into account.

(4) A prisoner eligible for remission of sentence under this rule who commits any offence against prison discipline may suffer total or partial loss of remission of sentence as provided for in rules 33 and 34, unless on account of his or her subsequent good conduct and industry the Superintendent directs otherwise.

(5) If a prisoner who has been granted remission under paragraph (1), after release fails to comply with any condition imposed under that sub-rule, the Superintendent may, on the recommendation of, or after consultation with the Committee, withdraw such remission and recall the prisoner to prison to continue to serve his or her sentence.

(6) The Superintendent may withdraw remission and recall a prisoner to prison without consulting the Committee, in any case in which it appears to him that it is expedient in the public interest so to do before such consultation is practical.

(7) A person recalled to prison under this rule may make representations in writing to the Governor with respect to the recall and must, on his or her return to prison, be informed in writing of the reasons for the recall and his or her right to make such representations.

(8) The Governor must refer to the Committee the case of a person recalled to prison who—

- (a) makes representations under sub-rule (7); or
- (b) is recalled under sub-rule (6) regardless whether or not the person makes representations under sub-rule (7).

(9) If upon a reference made under sub-rule (8) the Committee recommends the immediate release on remission of the prisoner, the Superintendent may give effect to that recommendation, but without prejudice to the power again to withdraw that remission and recall that person, under this rule, if new circumstances appear to require it.

(10) On withdrawal of remission of any person under this rule, the person is liable to be detained pursuant to his or her sentence, and, if at large, is deemed to be unlawfully at large and may be arrested by any police officer or prison officer.

(11) This rule does not apply to any prisoner serving a sentence of imprisonment for life or ordered to be detained in prison for an indefinite term during the pleasure of the Governor.

Temporary release

8. (1) The Superintendent may, subject to any conditions he or she sees fit to impose, authorise the temporary unsupervised release of a convicted prisoner, to enable the prisoner to engage in employment, to receive training, or to participate in any special activity, which would be of assistance to the prisoner in his or hers transition to freedom.

(2) Sub-rule (1) applies to any prisoner serving a sentence of 9 months or more before remission is taken into account if the prisoner—

- (a) has served at least 50% of his or her remitted sentence and has demonstrated satisfactory behaviour as a prisoner;
- (b) has for himself or herself, obtained or arranged, as the case may be, paid employment, self employment, training, or a special activity, which is consistent with the prisoner being required to spend his or her evenings and nights at the prison;
- (c) has demonstrated that such employment, training or special activity would assist in his or her rehabilitation.

(3) Any unauthorised absence by any prisoner from any employment, training or special activity permitted under this rule, may lead to the immediate withdrawal of such prisoner's temporary release privileges.

(4) During any period of temporary release under sub-rule (1), a prisoner must return to prison immediately at the conclusion of his or her session of work, training or special activity, for which such release is authorised under this rule.

(5) The Governor must determine how any money earned by a prisoner under this rule is to be disposed of, including what proportions are to be applied towards the prisoner's upkeep, retained to be available for his or her benefit upon release, and available for his or her personal use.

(6) A prisoner temporarily released under sub-rule (1) may be recalled to prison at any time, whether the conditions of his or her release have been broken or not.

Requests by prisoners to see certain authorities

9. (1) Every request by a prisoner to see the Superintendent or the Committee must be recorded in the Application Book by the prison officer to whom it is made and promptly communicated to the Superintendent.

(2) The Superintendent, as soon as practicable after being informed of a request under sub-rule (1) must—

- (a) if the request is addressed to the Superintendent - make himself or herself available to hear it on every day other than Saturday, Sunday, or a public holiday;
- (b) if the request is addressed to the Committee - inform a member of the Committee of the request.

Religious ministrations

10. (1) A prisoner must be treated as being of the religious denomination stated on his or her record upon admission into prison or otherwise disclosed by the prisoner to a prison officer.

(2) The Superintendent must approve the choice by any recognised religious denomination of a chaplain to a prison or any minister of religion, and must also approve the nomination of any substitute for the chaplain or a minister during the absence of the chaplain or minister.

(3) A chaplain or minister of religion must—

- (a) interview every prisoner individually as soon as practicable after the prisoner's admission into and release from prison;
- (b) unless other arrangements are made, read the burial service at the funeral of any prisoner of his or her denomination who dies in prison;
- (c) visit prisoners of his or her denomination as regularly as practicable; and
- (d) conduct divine service for the prisoners of his or her denomination at intervals approved by the Superintendent and on the special days of religious observance pertaining to that denomination.

(4) If a prisoner belongs to a denomination for which no minister has been approved under sub-rule (2), the Superintendent must do what he or she reasonably can, if so requested by the prisoner, to arrange for the prisoner to be visited by a minister or other member of that denomination.

(5) The Superintendent must not require prisoners to do unnecessary work on any day that is their particular sabbath day.

(6) So far as is reasonably practicable, there must be available for the personal use of every prisoner such religious books as are approved by the Superintendent for use in prisons.

Illness and death of prisoners

11. (1) The medical officer is to have the care of the mental and physical health of the prisoners.

(2) Every request by a prisoner to see the medical officer must be recorded in the Medical Book by the prison officer to whom it is made and promptly communicated to the medical officer.

(3) The medical officer may call another medical practitioner into consultation, and must do so, if time permits, before performing any serious operation.

(4) If an unconvicted prisoner desires the attendance of a registered medical practitioner or dentist, and will pay any expense incurred, the Superintendent must, if satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for the request, allow the prisoner to be attended by that practitioner or dentist, with or without the consultation of the medical officer.

(5) The medical officer must report in writing immediately to the Superintendent on the case of any prisoner—

(a) suffering from a contagious disease; or

(b) whose health is likely to be injuriously affected by continued imprisonment or any conditions of imprisonment;

and the Superintendent must thereupon without delay send a copy of the report to the Governor with his or her recommendation as to what requires to be done.

(6) The medical officer must report in writing to the Superintendent on the case of any prisoner whose mental condition appears to require that special arrangements be made for the prisoner's supervision or care, and the Superintendent may approve any such arrangements.

(7) The medical officer must inform the Superintendent if he or she suspects any prisoner of having suicidal intentions, and such prisoner must thereupon be placed under special observation.

(8) If a prisoner dies, becomes seriously ill, sustains any severe injury or is removed to a hospital on account of mental or physical disorder, the Superintendent must, if the address concerned is known to him or her, inform the prisoner's spouse or next of kin, and also any person whom the prisoner may reasonably have asked should be informed.

(9) If a prisoner dies, the Superintendent must immediately notify the Coroner, the Committee, and the Governor.

Clothing of prisoners

12. (1) An unconvicted prisoner may wear his or her own clothing and arrange for it to be supplied to him or her from outside the prison, insofar as such clothing is adequate, clean and tidy, but this rule otherwise applies to him or her as to a convicted prisoner.

(2) A convicted prisoner must be provided with the clothing adequate for the climate and consistent with good health in accordance with a scale approved by the Superintendent.

(3) The clothing referred to in sub-rule (2) includes protective clothing for use at work where it is needed.

(4) Subject to sub-rule (5), a convicted prisoner must only wear the clothing provided for him or her under this rule unless the Superintendent directs otherwise.

(5) A prisoner required to be taken in custody to any court must wear his or her own clothing or clothing different from that worn in prison.

Food

13. (1) Subject to any directions of the Governor, an unconvicted prisoner may arrange at his or her own expense for food to be supplied to him for her from outside the prison.

(2) Subject to any directions of the Governor, or as advised by the medical officer, no convicted prisoner may be—

(a) allowed to have any food other than that ordinarily provided;

(b) given less food than is ordinarily provided:

but the Superintendent in his or her discretion may permit a prisoner to receive prepared food.

(3) The food provided must be wholesome, nutritious, well prepared and served, reasonably varied and sufficient in quantity.

(4) The Environmental Health Officer must regularly inspect the food both before and after it is cooked, and must report any deficiency or defect to the Superintendent.

Alcohol and tobacco

14. (1) A prisoner must not be allowed to have any intoxicating liquor except under a written order of the medical officer specifying the quantity and the name of the prisoner.

(2) A prisoner must not be allowed to smoke or have any tobacco except as a privilege under rule 6 and in accordance with any directions of the Superintendent.

15. (1) A room or cell must not be used as sleeping accommodation unless certified by the Governor as being—

(b) otherwise suitable for the confinement of any prisoner.

(2) Each prisoner must be provided with a separate bed and with separate bedding adequate for warmth and health.

(3) Every prisoner must be provided with toilet articles necessary for his or her health and cleanliness, and the articles must be replaced as necessary.

(4) Every prisoner is required to wash at proper times, have a shower on admission into prison and thereafter at least once per day and to have his or her hair cut as may be necessary for neatness; but a prisoner is not required to have his or her hair cut if he or she keeps his hair tidy, unless the medical officer directs this to be done for the sake of health or cleanliness.

(4A) Every male prisoner not excepted by the Superintendent must shave or be shaved daily, but need not have any beard or moustache usually worn by him shaved off if he keeps it tidy, unless the medical officer directs this to be done for the sake of health or cleanliness.

(5) A female prisoner's hair must not be cut without her consent unless the medical officer certifies in writing that this is necessary for the sake of health or cleanliness.

Power of search

16. (1) A prison officer may search any—
 (a) prisoner; or
 (b) cell occupied by a prisoner, for the purpose of ascertaining whether a prisoner has any prohibited or unauthorised article on his or her person or in his or her cell.

 (a) must have every regard for decency and if conducting a strip search must do so out of sight of other prisoners;
 (b) may use reasonable force where necessary; and
 (c) may seize and detain any prohibited or unauthorised article found on the prisoner or in his or her cell during the course of the search.

(3) In this rule “prohibited or unauthorised article”, in relation to a prison, means any article which the prisoner is not authorised by these Rules or by the Superintendent to have in his or her possession or, as the case may be, in his or her possession in any particular part of the prison.

(4) The Superintendent may authorise the medical officer to—
 (a) conduct, with or without the consent of the prisoner, an intrusive bodily search of a prisoner for the purpose of discovering any prohibited or unauthorised article; and
 (b) obtain samples from a prisoner of any bodily fluids necessary to detect illness or drug abuse;
 but no sample other than urine or saliva may be obtained from the prisoner without his or her consent.

Daily exercise

17. (1) A prisoner not engaged in outdoor work must be given exercise in the open air for not less than one hour each day, if health permits; but exercise consisting of physical training may be given indoors instead of in the open air.

(2) The period of exercise referred to in sub-rule (1) may be reduced in special circumstances by the Superintendent.

20. (1) The Superintendent must endeavour to facilitate such relations between a prisoner and his or her family as are desirable in the best interests of both.

(2) A prisoner must be encouraged and assisted to establish and maintain such relations with persons and agencies outside prison as may, in the opinion of the Superintendent, best promote the interests of the prisoner's family and his or her own social rehabilitation.

(3) From the beginning of a prisoner's sentence, consideration must be given, whenever possible, in consultation with the appropriate aftercare organisation, to the prisoner's future and the assistance to be given to the prisoner after release.

Letters and visits

(2) Except as provided by this rule, a prisoner must not be permitted to communicate with any person outside the prison, or that person with the prisoner, without the leave of the Superintendent.

(3) Except as provided by this rule, every letter or communication to and from a prisoner may be read or examined by the Superintendent or a prison officer deputed by him or her, and the Superintendent may, at his or her discretion, stop any letter or communication on the ground that its contents are objectionable or could lead to a breach of prison security.

(4) Every visit to a prisoner must take place within the sight and, except as provided by rule 22, the hearing of a prison officer, unless the Superintendent otherwise directs.

(5) The Superintendent may give directions, generally or in relation to any visit or class of visit, concerning the days and times when prisoners may be visited.

(6) An unconvicted prisoner may send and receive as many letters and receive as many visits as he or she wishes within such limits and subject to such conditions as the Superintendent directs, either generally or in a particular case.

(3) The legal adviser of a prisoner in any legal proceedings, civil or criminal, to which the prisoner is a party, must be afforded reasonable facilities for interviewing him or her in connection with those proceedings out of hearing but in the sight of a prison officer.

(4) A prisoner's legal adviser may, with the leave of the Superintendent, interview the prisoner in connection with any legal business in the sight and hearing of a prison officer.

(5) A prisoner who is a party to any legal proceeding may correspond with his or her legal adviser in connection with the proceedings, and unless the Superintendent has reason to suppose that any such correspondence contains matter not relating to the proceedings it must not be read or stopped under rule 21(1).

(6) A prisoner must on request be provided with any writing materials necessary for the purpose of sub-rule (5).

(7) Subject to any directions given in the particular case by the Superintendent, a registered medical practitioner selected by or on behalf of a prisoner who is a party to legal proceedings must be afforded reasonable facilities for examining the prisoner in connection with the proceedings, and may do so out of hearing but in the sight of a prison officer.
