

Councillor Andrew Turner Biography

In October 2021 Andrew was elected into the St Helena legislative Council and is the district representative for Blue Hill and Sandy Bay.

He sits as chair of the Employment Rights Committee, and serves as the Legislative Council Representative on the National Trust Council, as well as nominated as Culture Champion.

Prior to being elected into the St Helena Legislative Council, Councillor Andrew Turner worked in local media, where he became highly involved in island issues. He first became interested in local politics while still in school and was a founding member for St Helena's first Youth Parliament.
