At the conclusion of a debate the question shall be put by the Speaker and the votes may be taken by the voices “Aye” or “No” and the result shall be declared by the Speaker; but any Member may thereupon claim a division, in which case—

- (a) the vote shall be taken by the Clerk separately asking each Elected Member how the Elected Member desires to vote and recording the votes accordingly;
- (b) every Elected Member present shall, unless the Member expressly states that the Member abstains, record the Member’s vote either “Aye” or the “No”, audibly but without raising the Member’s voice unduly; the Clerk shall enter in the Official Record each Member’s vote and shall add a statement of the names of the Members who abstained;
- (c) as soon as the Clerk has collected the votes, the Speaker shall state the numbers voting “Aye” and “No”, and the number of abstentions, and shall declare the result of the division.
