

DRAFT DATA PROTECTION POLICY

St Helena currently has no specific data protection legislation. The legislation will apply to any organisations in the private, public and third sector (such as charities, associations, and community groups) that deal with individuals' personal data. Personal data is defined as any information relating to an identified or identifiable individual.

The policy outlines lawful bases for processing personal data and guides its management and disposal.

The policy defines lawful bases for data processing and offers guidance on handling and disposing of personal data.

The policy specifies lawful bases for processing and includes guidance on managing and disposing of personal data.

Contact

Alex Adams

23452 / 64445

 alex@judigital.com